<Duty to prepare circular economy plan

Duty to prepare circular economy plan

- (1) Each public body must—
 - (a) prepare a circular economy plan, and
 - (b) submit it to the Scottish Ministers for approval.
- (2) A circular economy plan is a plan which—
 - (a) sets out how the public body will—
 - (i) report on how its activities contribute to the delivery of a circular economy, as set out in section 1(3), in particular through procurement,
 - (ii) improve how its activities will contribute to the delivery of a circular economy,
 - (b) sets the date by which any improvements are intended to be carried out.
- (3) A public body, in preparing its circular economy plan, must have regard to—
 - (a) the best way to contribute to the delivery of the circular economy strategy,
 - (b) such matters as the Scottish Ministers may direct.
- (4) In this section, a “public body” has the same meaning within section 3(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002.>

Public body duties in relation to circular economy

- (1) Each public body must take reasonable steps to prevent human rights harm and ensure environmental due diligence with regard to the body’s operations, products, services (in particular procurement) throughout their value chain and those of their subsidiaries.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers must, by regulations and before 1 April 2025, make further provision for the purposes of subsection (1).

THIS IS NOT THE MARSHALLED LIST

- (3) Regulations under this section may make provision for—
 - (a) a definition of human rights and environmental due diligence so long as it is consistent with any definition or principles within—
 - (i) the Universal Declaration of Human Rights adopted by the United Nations General Assembly in 1948,
 - (ii) the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights adopted by the United Nations General Assembly in 1966,
 - (iii) the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights adopted by the United Nations General Assembly in 1966,
 - (iv) the International Labour Organization’s Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work adopted by the International Labour Conference in 1998,
 - (b) a public body to exclude, disbar or terminate a contract with any business that does not conduct adequate human rights and environmental due diligence,
 - (c) any reporting requirements,
 - (d) any funding requirements,
 - (e) the Scottish Ministers to prepare and publish guidance on best practice for human rights and environmental due diligence,
 - (f) the role of an advisory body.
- (4) Regulations under this section are subject to the affirmative procedure.>

Mark Ruskell

- 80 After section 7, insert—

<Reporting requirements on those in receipt of public funds

Reporting requirements on those in receipt of public funds

- (1) All private companies, associations, corporations or persons in receipt of grants or loans from a Scottish public authority must, within the reporting period—
 - (a) prepare a report, and
 - (b) provide any Scottish public authority that is providing a grant or loan to the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) with a copy of that report, or
 - (c) include the information required under subsection (2) within any annual report published during that reporting period,unless exempt from doing so under subsection (3).
- (2) The report under subsection (1) must include—
 - (a) a review of the company’s (or, as the case may be, association’s, corporation’s or person’s) activities and the extent to which the activity relates to each element of the waste hierarchy,
 - (b) a statement as to how the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) plans to move activities under subsection (2)(a) further up the waste hierarchy, and as far as practicable, the dates by which they will do so,
 - (c) a statement of the progress that has been made under subsection (2)(b).

THIS IS NOT THE MARSHALLED LIST

- (3) A Scottish public authority must provide for exemptions under subsection (1).
- (4) Exemptions under subsection (3) may include exemptions according to—

 - (b) the annual turnover of the private company, association, corporation or person in receipt of the grant or loan,
 - (c) the total value of the grant or loan.
- (5) The requirement to prepare and provide a report under subsection (1) may end at a point mutually agreed to by the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) and the Scottish public authority that is providing a grant or loan to the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) but must not be for a period shorter than the period for which any such grant or loan may be outstanding.
- (6) For the avoidance of doubt, this section includes all functions of—
 - (a) Scottish Enterprise or Highland and Islands Enterprise under section 4 of the Enterprise and New Towns (Scotland) Act 1990,
 - (b) South of Scotland Enterprise under section 8 of the South Scotland Enterprise Act 2019.
- (7) Each of the following is a “reporting period”—
 - (a) the period beginning with the day after the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) receives the grant or loan and ending 12 months later,
 - (b) each successive period of 12 months.
- (8) In this section—

“Scottish public authority” has the same meaning as section 3(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002,

“waste hierarchy” has the same meaning as Schedule 4 of the Waste Management Licensing (Scotland) Regulations S.S.I 2011/228.>
