6 After section 2, insert—

<Glue trap licences

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may grant a licence under this section (a “glue trap licence”) authorising a pest controller specified or described in the licence to engage in conduct for the purpose of preserving public health or public safety which would otherwise amount to an offence under section 1 or 2.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may not grant a glue trap licence for a purpose mentioned in subsection (1), unless the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that, as regards that purpose, there is no other satisfactory solution.
- (3) The Scottish Ministers may not grant a glue trap licence under subsection (1) unless the pest controller or controllers to be specified in the licence have completed an approved training course in respect of glue traps (see section Glue trap licences: approved training courses).
- (4) A glue trap licence—
 - (a) may be general or specific,
 - (b) may be subject to any conditions specified in the licence,
 - (c) may be modified or revoked at any time by the Scottish Ministers (whether or not on an application from the pest controller or controllers authorised by the licence),
 - (d) may be for a specified period of time.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may require an application for the grant or modification of a glue trap licence, or of a glue trap licence of a particular description, to be made in such form, and to be accompanied by such documentation or information, as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.
- (6) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations—
 - (a) make provision about the display of the glue trap licence number on the glue trap,
 - (b) make provision about the evidence to be provided by a licence holder when purchasing (or otherwise acquiring) a glue trap,
 - (c) make provision for the charging of fees or other charges in relation to an application for the grant or modification of a glue trap licence (and such fees or other charges may be set by reference to any costs incurred, or expected to be incurred, by the Scottish Ministers in connection with this section),
 - (d) make provision for, or in connection with, appeals in respect of—
 - (i) a decision to refuse an application for the grant or modification of a glue trap licence,
 - (ii) a decision to modify or revoke a glue trap licence,
 - (e) make provision for offences in connection with an application for a glue trap licence.
- (7) Regulations under subsection (6) may, in particular, make provision about—
 - (a) the grounds upon which an appeal may be made,
 - (b) when an appeal may be made,

- (c) the court, tribunal or other person who is to determine the appeal,
- (d) the procedure for making, or determining, an appeal.
- (8) Regulations under subsection (6) are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (9) In this section, “pest controller” means a person—
 - (a) who—
 - (i) in the course of a business, provides a service which consists of, or involves, pest control, or
 - (ii) is employed by a public authority to carry out pest control, and
 - (b) is licensed to carry out pest control.
- (10) For the purposes of this section, a public authority is a person who carries out functions of a public nature.>

Edward Mountain

7 After section 2, insert—

<Glue trap licences: approved training courses

- (1) The Scottish Ministers are to approve training courses in respect of glue traps.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers may—
 - (a) determine training requirements, such as—
 - (i) the form and content of courses,
 - (ii) requiring a person providing training to meet certain criteria (such as having relevant experience or holding a particular qualification),
 - (b) accredit courses and the persons providing courses,
 - (c) determine the minimum criteria for successful completion of courses, and
 - (d) determine how successful completion of such courses is to be recorded.>

- (2) After section 16 insert—

“16AZA Licensing principles

When exercising their functions under sections 12B, 12C, 12D, 12E, 12G, 16AA or 16AC, the Scottish Ministers (or, where the Scottish Ministers have delegated (by virtue of section 16A) their functions under any of those sections, Scottish Natural Heritage) must have regard to the following principles—

- (a) licensing should not place a disproportionate cost on applicants,
- (b) a licensing scheme should only be introduced where there is a legitimate need for one,
- (c) a licensing scheme should not put excessive pressure on Scottish Natural Heritage, or other relevant bodies,
- (d) the individual circumstances of those affected by a licensing scheme must be taken into account,
- (e) the licensing process should be constantly reviewed to ensure the application process is as efficient as possible.”>
