Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-13679 Kate Forbes: Scottish Government Priorities: Growing the Economy—That the Parliament recognises that Scotland's abundant natural resources and hugely talented people mean that there is opportunity to build a strong, successful and inclusive economy that realises the new opportunities from the transition to net zero and the digital revolution; acknowledges that Scotland's economic potential can be realised through actions to support entrepreneurs, promote science and technology and ensure that the track record of innovation is translated into new businesses and improvements in productivity in all sectors of the economy, and agrees that doing so will build Scotland's global reputation as a great place to do business, grow exports and secure international and domestic investment.

Supported by: Tom Arthur*

S6M-13664 Shirley-Anne Somerville: Gender Representation on Public Boards (Amendment) (Scotland) Bill—That the Parliament agrees that the Gender Representation on Public Boards (Amendment) (Scotland) Bill be passed.

Supported by: Paul McLennan*, Kaukab Stewart*

S6M-13663 Mairi Gougeon: Agriculture and Rural Communities (Scotland) Bill—That the Parliament agrees that the Agriculture and Rural Communities (Scotland) Bill be passed.

Supported by: Jim Fairlie*

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-13649 Elena Whitham: Common Ground Forum on Deer—That the Parliament recognises the achievements of the Common Ground Forum in addressing challenging conflicts and relationships in the deer management sector; welcomes that the forum has brought together stakeholders, including land managers and conservationists, to build consensus and common understanding; notes what it sees as the importance of effective deer management in achieving both nature restoration and the viability of rural businesses in many parts of the country, including in Ayrshire, and further notes the calls for all sides of the issues to continue to come together under the Common Ground Forum's approach.

S6M-13609 Humza Yousaf: Immediate Recognition of the State of Palestine—That the Parliament notes calls urging the UK Government to join its European neighbours, Ireland, Spain and Norway, in immediately recognising the State of Palestine; understands that 144 member states of the United Nations recognise Palestine as a sovereign state; believes that a two-state solution is the only viable path for peace between Israel and Palestine, and that there can only be a two-state solution if a sovereign Palestinian state is immediately recognised and co-exists alongside Israel; further believes that Palestinian statehood is an inalienable right of the people of Palestine, not a privilege that can be vetoed by others; notes in horror the continued suffering of the people of Gaza; commends aid organisations, and community groups across Scotland, including in Glasgow Pollok, which are donating funds and sending aid to ease the humanitarian catastrophe in Gaza; notes the calls urging the Government of Israel to allow unimpeded access to Gaza for humanitarian aid, and further notes the calls for an immediate ceasefire, an end to arms sales to Israel and the immediate release of all hostages.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Emma Harper*, Stuart McMillan*, Gordon MacDonald*, Fulton MacGregor*, Bill Kidd*

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-13676 Karen Adam: Winner of M&S Low Impact Award—That the Parliament congratulates Duncan Farms, of the Banffshire and Buchan Coast constituency, on winning the M&S Low Impact Award at the M&S Select Farm Awards; notes that these awards are a celebration of the innovation and dedication shown by M&S Select Farmers, and further notes that the Low Impact Award champions food producers who have gone the extra mile to embed sustainable and low environmental impact farming methods.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Bill Kidd*, Rona Mackay*, Sandesh Gulhane*

S6M-13675 Karen Adam: Applauding Portsoy Green Fingers Group—That the Parliament applauds the tireless work and pride in their community of the members of the Portsoy community collective, The Green Fingers Group; notes that the volunteers care for the many flower beds and tubs in the village, sourcing plants and equipment from Aberdeenshire Council, and donations and grants in conjunction with Portsoy and District Community Council, and recognises what it sees as the positive impact that the volunteers' work has on the village, boosting Portsoy's profile as a premier visitor attraction, while bringing a real sense of community pride to those who call Portsoy home.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Rona Mackay*

S6M-13674 Rona Mackay: Paul McLaughlin, Admiration and Gratitude for Retiring Headteacher—That the Parliament recognises the 40-year teaching career of the headteacher, Paul McLaughlin, of St Ninian's High School in Kirkintilloch; commends Mr McLaughlin's gifting and lasting legacy of empowering others by nurturing and releasing potential in both pupils and staff; congratulates him on his achievements, such as being awarded Scottish Teacher of the Year in 2009 and 2019, and UK Teacher of the Year in 2009, and his school being repeatedly shortlisted for the TES High School of the Year Award; delights at the joy with which Mr McLaughlin connects with the families of St Ninian's High School and beyond through enabling the hosting of its Confucius Classroom from 2012 and establishing a ground-breaking blueprint partnership with the Youth Academy of Celtic FC; applauds the tenacity of Mr McLaughlin's commitment to supporting others within the teaching profession, including supporting seven of his own depute headteachers into their headship qualification, in addition to St Ninian's High School being recognised by the General Teaching Council of Scotland in 2017 as one of the very first schools to achieve the Excellence in Professional Learning Award; acknowledges Mr McLaughlin's Scotland-wide impact as an associate inspector with His Majesty's Inspectorate of Education, and tutor for the Head Teacher Leadership Academies of Columba 1400; highlights Mr McLaughlin's service on the executive of the Catholic Head Teachers Association of Scotland, Archdiocese of Glasgow Secondary Headteachers' Association and as a director of the Board of Governors for The Good Shepherd Centre, supporting young people who have experience of the Children's Panel and criminal justice system, and sends abundant thanks and every best wishes to Mr McLaughlin as he retires in June 2024.

S6M-13671 Christine Grahame: 50 Years of the Great Polish Map—That the Parliament recognises the 50th anniversary of work commencing on the Great Polish Map of Scotland, also known as Mapa Scotland, a 50m x 40m three-dimensional outdoor concrete scale model of Scotland in the grounds of Barony Castle in Eddleston; notes that the Map was the brainchild of Polish war veteran, Jan Tomasik, and was built between 1974 and 1979, mainly by a small group of Polish people; understands that it is claimed to be the world's largest terrain relief model and has in recent years been renovated and restored by a committed team of volunteers; believes that, as well as the merits of the creative endeavour, it also stands as a lasting tribute to the ties between Poland and Scotland, and looks forward to its next 50 years.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Emma Harper*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, John Mason*

S6M-13670 Jamie Hepburn on behalf of the Parliamentary Bureau: Stage 3 Timetable—That the Parliament agrees that, during stage 3 of the Agriculture and Rural Communities (Scotland) Bill, debate on groups of amendments shall, subject to Rule 9.8.4A, be brought to a conclusion by the time limits indicated, those time limits being calculated from when the stage begins and excluding any periods when other business is under consideration or when a meeting of the Parliament is suspended (other than a suspension following the first division in the stage being called) or otherwise not in progress:

Groups 1 to 3: 1 hour 15 minutes

Groups 4 to 6: 2 hours 10 minutes

Groups 7 to 9: 3 hours 5 minutes

Groups 10 to 12: 4 hours.

S6M-13668 Miles Briggs: Myeloma Awareness Week —That the Parliament recognises 17 to 23 June as myeloma awareness week; understands that myeloma is an incurable blood cancer and that approximately 2,300 people in Scotland are living with the condition; welcomes the #InMyeOwnWords campaign by Myeloma UK, which uses people's own words to describe their experience of the most common signs and symptoms of myeloma, which include fatigue, back pain, recurring infections, and broken bones; further welcomes the symptom translator developed by Myeloma UK to help communication between a doctor and patient by using examples of myeloma symptoms described in patients' own words, and calls on MSPs across the Parliament to support the campaign by raising awareness of the symptoms and encouraging people to download the symptom translator and get themselves checked.

S6M-13667 Foyso! Choudhury: The Benefits of Intergenerational Learning—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the value of intergenerational learning in building inclusive, harmonious communities and facilitating meaningful, mutually beneficial relationships between older and younger people; believes that intergenerational learning is an important part of lifelong learning in which people of all ages learn together and from each other, sharing skills, values and knowledge; notes that intergenerational learning may include, for example, members of different generations coming together for workshops, cultural festivals, or hobby groups, such as gardening projects and choirs; acknowledges what it sees as the potential of intergenerational learning in building confidence, empathy and skills among young people, and improving social connection and physical wellbeing among older adults; believes that intergenerational learning is an intentional, learned practice, rather than incidental or occasional interactions; notes that the Generations Working Together Excellence Awards ceremony was held during Loneliness Awareness Week on 11 June 2024, recognising that loneliness can affect people of all ages and that intergenerational learning and friendships between younger and older generations can benefit those affected; commends Generations Working Together for its work to increase intergenerational practice in Scotland, including delivering training, increasing awareness, and developing comprehensive publications on best practice, and hopes for the continued growth of intergenerational learning.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Monica Lennon*, Miles Briggs*

S6M-13666 Paul Sweeney: Celebrating the 11th LGBTIQ+ Sports Festival—That the Parliament congratulates Leadership, Equality and Active Participation in Sports for LGBTIQ+ people in Scotland (LEAP Sports Scotland) on the 11th edition of its annual LGBTIQ+ sports festival, Festival Fortnight, taking place from 17 to 30 June 2024; understands that the festival grows bigger each year with more than 100 events reaching over 1,200 people across the fortnight taking place all over the country from Durness and Inverness to Ayrshire and across the Central Belt; believes that grassroots initiatives, such as Festival Fortnight, are imperative in reducing barriers to participation of LGBTIQ+ people within sport and physical activity; notes the aims of Festival Fortnight as increasing visibility and participation of LGBTIQ+ people in sport as well as raising awareness of equality and human rights issues in sport, and wishes LEAP Sports Scotland success in the further upcoming events over the summer, including the first ever Qeltic Games being held in Perth.

S6M-13665 Liam McArthur: Outstanding Orcadians Recognised in The King's Honours List—That the Parliament congratulates Anne Gregg, John Corse and Angus Heddle, all from Orkney, on being awarded MBEs in His Majesty The King's Birthday Honours list 2024; understands that Anne Gregg, who has worked at NHS Orkney since 1993 and been a Macmillan Nurse for 25 years, has been recognised for services to healthcare in the Orkney Islands; believes that Mrs Gregg has worked tirelessly throughout her career to give the very best of care to people in hospital and across the community, and understands that her work saw her presented with the Special Recognition Award at the Team Orkney Awards earlier in 2024; notes that John Corse, of John G Corse Funeral Directors, has been recognised for services to the community in Orkney, having conducted thousands of funerals on the islands; believes that he is well-known for the sensitive manner in which he deals with families who have just lost a loved one; understands that Mr Corse built the county's first funeral home, and that he has separately been involved in extensive charitable efforts over a number of years; acknowledges Angus Heddle's nomination for services to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution and to the community in Longhope, having been a member of the Longhope Lifeboat shore crew and a winch operator since 1949; believes that Mr Heddle has also been central to the success of the Longhope Lifeboat Museum, having been a

S6M-13657 Claire Baker: Gold Standard Reading Award for Carnock Primary—That the Parliament congratulates Carnock Primary School on becoming the first school in Fife to achieve the gold standard reading award from the Scottish Book Trust; recognises the hard work of pupils and staff in creating a better reading environment and taking part in a number of long-term initiatives to help promote a love of books; welcomes that the school placed reading at the centre of the school community and worked towards the award through whole school projects, author visits, paired reading and other activities, including a Big Book Festival in the local park, and notes that book recommendations from the pupils can currently be viewed in Waterstones in Dunfermline.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Emma Harper*, Karen Adam*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*, Jeremy Balfour*

S6M-13656 Gordon MacDonald: Education Awards Success for Edinburgh Napier University—That the Parliament congratulates the recent achievements of Edinburgh Napier University at The Herald Higher Education Awards 2024, including winning Higher Education Institution of the Year; commends the University on being presented the Widening Access Award for the "Hub for Success", which, it understands, was established to address low rates of higher education admission and retention for care experienced people; highlights the individual award of Outstanding Contribution for a university student given to Shalu Madan for her work on diversity; notes the further success in winning Research Project of the Year, which focused on the carriage of naloxone by police officers to address drug related deaths in Scotland; further notes that the University received a Public Services Award 2024 at the Proud Scotland awards, and wishes the staff and students continued success.

S6M-13655 Paul Sweeney: University of Glasgow Ranks 12th in the World in the Times Higher Education (THE) Impact Rankings—That the Parliament commends the University of Glasgow for ranking 12th in the world in The Times Higher Education (THE) Impact Rankings 2024, placing it first in Scotland and third in the UK; celebrates the hard work of the University to support the mission of the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs); notes that Glasgow ranked particularly highly against SDG 11, sustainable cities and development, and SDG 12, reducing inequalities; understands that the University of Glasgow is working collaboratively at a local, national and international level to tackle some of the most pressing global challenges; believes that the University is a world-changing institution that leverages its first-class research and teaching environment to improve global health and education, reduce inequality, drive economic growth and tackle climate change, and looks forward to maintaining a close relationship with the University of Glasgow as it drives positive and lasting societal change.

S6M-13653 Stuart McMillan: Aileen Wilson Recognised at NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde Celebrating Success Awards—That the Parliament congratulates Aileen Wilson, team lead for residential service at Inverclyde Health and Social Care Partnership (HSCP), on being recognised for the support she provides to local children at NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde's Celebrating Success Awards; understands that Aileen was described as having "values rooted in compassion and the rights of children", and was named the overall winner in the Inverclyde HSCP category during the ceremony on 30 May 2024; further understands that Aileen manages three children's houses, which include a large staff team, and that colleagues told how she has developed "a culture of trust whereby children's voices are listened to by staff and their views are taken seriously"; commends Aileen for her dedication to children's services in Inverclyde, and congratulates all 18 winners that were announced across NHSGGC's local sectors, HSCPs and other services including Diagnostics, Public Health and Pharmacy at the awards.

Reporting requirements on those in receipt of public funds

- (1) All private companies, associations, corporations or persons in receipt of grants or loans from a Scottish public authority must, within the reporting period—
 - (a) prepare a report, and
 - (b) provide any Scottish public authority that is providing a grant or loan to the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) with a copy of that report, or
 - (c) include the information required under subsection (2) within any annual report published during that reporting period, unless exempt from doing so under subsection (3).
- (2) The report under subsection (1) must include—
 - (a) a review of the company's (or, as the case may be, association's, corporation's or person's) activities and the extent to which the activity relates to each element of the waste hierarchy,
 - (b) a statement as to how the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) plans to move activities under subsection (2)(a) further up the waste hierarchy, and as far as practicable, the dates by which they will do so,
 - (c) a statement of the progress that has been made under subsection (2)(b).
- (3) A Scottish public authority must provide for exemptions under subsection (1).
- (4) Exemptions under subsection (3) may include exemptions according to—
 - (a) the sector or sectors in which the private company, association, corporation or person in receipt of the grant or loan operates,
 - (b) the annual turnover of the private company, association, corporation or person in receipt of the grant or loan,
 - (c) the total value of the grant or loan.
- (5) The requirement to prepare and provide a report under subsection (1) may end at a point mutually agreed to by the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) and the Scottish public authority that is providing a grant or loan to the company (or, as the case may be, association, corporation or person) but must not be for a period shorter than the period for which any such grant or loan may be outstanding.

- (6) For the avoidance of doubt, this section includes all functions of—
- (a) Scottish Enterprise or Highland and Islands Enterprise under section 4 of the Enterprise and New Towns (Scotland) Act 1990,

Laid under section 30(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
