Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-01142 Liam McArthur: Orkney Winter Choir and Orkney Camerata Shortlisted for Royal Philharmonic Society Inspiration Award—That the Parliament congratulates the Orkney Winter Choir and Orkney Camerata on being shortlisted for a Royal Philharmonic Society Inspiration Award; notes that the prestigious national award celebrates non-professional musical activities during the past year; understands that the Choir and Camerata have been recognised for their CD of Christmas music, Together for Christmas, which included contributions from 100 Orkney singers and players who recorded their parts remotely from their homes; recognises that the Choir and Camerata's Christmas CD raised £3,000 for the Malawi Music Fund; acknowledges the importance of community groups, like the Choir and Camerata, for promoting the enjoyment of music for all ages, and for their tenacity during the pandemic to find innovative ways of bringing the community together; further notes that six projects have been shortlisted and will be subject to a public vote that closes on 30 September 2021; congratulates the Orkney Winter Choir and Orkney Camerata on this well-deserved recognition, and wishes them all the very best in the public vote and for future projects.

or no opportunity to play in public, and congratulates the organisers and performers for helping Prestfest return to the stage in Prestwick.

*S6M-01133 Gillian Mackay: World Suicide Prevention Day, Samaritans Scotland—That the Parliament recognises that 10 September 2021 is World Suicide Prevention Day; understands that this year's theme is Creating Hope Through Action and that, by working in partnership and engaging with communities from the Scottish Borders to the Highlands and Islands, Samaritans Scotland volunteers have played a crucial role in creating hope during this challenging time; recognises the essential role Samaritans Scotland volunteers have played, and continue to play, throughout the COVID-19 pandemic in providing emotional support to anyone in crisis or distress; understands that in the first year since social distancing restrictions were introduced, Samaritans Scotland volunteers spent over 50,000 hours providing emotional support through the charity's free 24-hour helpline; recognises that, despite the ongoing challenges of the COVID-19 pandemic, volunteers have continued to support and promote mental and emotional wellbeing and suicide prevention activity within their communities; understands that this has included a range of virtual engagement activity, including running digital Learn to Listen workshops throughout the year, sharing how people can use active listening skills within their communities and workplaces; further understands that, as restrictions begin to ease, volunteers across Scotland are re-starting a range of in-person outreach and partnership activities, including supporting ongoing work with Network Rail, and will be active across the country in the lead up to World Suicide Prevention Day, running a range of roadshows, stalls and events, and welcomes the Samaritans Scotland's partnership and community engagement activity, alongside volunteers' vital work supporting the 24-hour helpline, as a source of hope and a significant contribution to strengthening suicide prevention and supporting mental health and wellbeing.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Evelyn Tweed*, Maggie Chapman*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Liam McArthur*, Rona Mackay*, David Torrance*, John Mason*, Colin Beattie*, Ross Greer*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Russell Findlay*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Audrey Nicoll*, Natalie Don*

*S6M-01132 Annie Wells: The International Day of Sign Languages, 23 September 2021—That the Parliament recognises that the International Day of Sign Languages on 23 September 2021 is a unique opportunity to support and protect the linguistic identity and cultural diversity of all deaf people and other sign language users; understands that the day aims to raise awareness of the importance of sign language and focuses on people who are deaf or hard of hearing, and people with speech disorders; understands that early access to sign language, and services in sign language, including quality education available in sign language, is vital to the growth and development of deaf people, and recognises the importance of preserving sign languages as part of linguistic and cultural diversity.

*S6M-01131 Alexander Stewart: Diversity Week Fife 2021—That the Parliament welcomes Diversity Week Fife, which runs from 6 to 12 September 2021, where partners from the private, public and voluntary sectors work together to celebrate what they see as the vibrancy and diversity of life in Fife; understands that Diversity Week Fife aims to promote mutual appreciation and inclusiveness by highlighting and showcasing the many and varied communities and social interests in the region; notes that the theme for 2021 is Rebuilding Community and looks at recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic, and how Fife's residents can support each other to move into the so-called new normal; understands that, in previous years, organisations and community groups hosted events such as coffee mornings or open doors days; further understands that there are also other ways of participating and that Fife Centre for Equalities, which is running the event, can advise if interested residents have another kind of event they would like to run, in support of the inclusion of all members of Fife's diverse community; wishes everyone involved all the very best for the event's continued success, and commends them all on their truly sterling work.

*S6M-01130 Karen Adam: RNLI Peterhead—That the Parliament commends the vital services provided by the volunteer crews and lifeguards of Peterhead Royal National Lifeboat Institution (RNLI); welcomes the BBC series Saving Lives at Sea, which highlights the rescues carried out by lifeboat crews and lifeguards all around the UK and Ireland; understands that this included Peterhead RNLI; believes that the series provides insight into the enormous effort that goes into the RNLI's essential and lifesaving work around the coastline and inland waterways; thanks the local communities, families, and loved ones who provide support to the lifesavers, and wishes them every success, health and happiness in the future.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*

*S6M-01128 Brian Whittle: The Passing of Athletics Coach Iain Robertson —That the Parliament notes the sad news of the sudden passing of Scottish coaching stalwart Iain Robertson; considers that there are few coaches in Scottish athletics who have contributed so much to sport, not only in coaching female sprinters to Olympic, World, European and Commonwealth Games level, but also to coach development and to club leadership and management; understands that he contributed significantly to the coach education programme that would ultimately become Great Britain's, that he was the architect in the transformation of Maryhill AC to Glasgow AC, changing the culture of women's athletics in Scotland, that he served as a coach in GB Teams, in addition to similar Scottish duties, and worked on several GB training camps; believes that so many of the current crop of coaches in Scotland owe Iain a huge debt of gratitude, and passes on its condolences to his family and friends.

Supported by: Alexander Stewart*, Annie Wells*, Bob Doris*, Murdo Fraser*, Edward Mountain*, Liam McArthur*, Miles Briggs*, Fulton MacGregor*, Stuart McMillan*, Douglas Ross*, Colin Beattie*, Pam Gosal*, Bill Kidd*, Douglas Lumsden*, Finlay Carson*, Sue Webber*, Donald Cameron*, Russell Findlay*

*S6M-01127 Monica Lennon: Construction Industry Coronavirus (CICV) Forum—That the Parliament congratulates the Construction Industry Coronavirus (CICV) Forum for the work it has undertaken in providing support, guidance, and advice to the Scottish construction sector and its clients throughout the COVID-19 pandemic; acknowledges that, by bringing together all the major trade and professional bodies, the CICV has pooled industry expertise and knowledge, to represent the interests of Scotland's diverse construction supply chain, with one consistent voice; understands that CICV Forum priorities include giving expert advice and focus on important sector issues including health and safety, skills and training, energy efficiency, commercial and employment matters; recognises the CICV Forum for what it sees as the very important work it carried out, in advising and supporting clients, especially vulnerable individuals who required work to be undertaken to their homes during the pandemic, and believes that, due to the success of the Forum, members of the CICV have agreed to continue to work together post-pandemic, for the wider long-term benefit of the industry.

Supported by: Colin Beattie*, Stuart McMillan*, David Torrance*, Bill Kidd*, Kenneth Gibson*

*S6M-01126 Douglas Lumsden: Aberdeen City Council and the UK Government Afghan Relocation Scheme—That the Parliament commends Aberdeen City Council for working with the UK Government to relocate more than 100 people from Afghanistan; understands that Aberdeen City Council, working together with the Home Office, will provide services and support to relocated

*S6M-01097 Fiona Hyslop: Marking the Linlithgow Mini Folk Festival, 9 to 12 September 2021—That the Parliament welcomes the Linlithgow Mini Folk Festival 2021, which celebrates traditional music from Linlithgow and beyond and features events and performances for children as well as adults; recognises the local and international talents featured in the Festival, including an online concert with the twinning associations of Linlithgow and its twin town Guyancourt in France; notes the important role that the Linlithgow Folk Festival has played in the community online during the pandemic, and commends the passion and commitment of the Festival's organisers for delivering another exciting programme of events.

*S6M-01096 Evelyn Tweed: Congratulations on Walter Scott Tower and Roderick Dhu Path—That the Parliament recognises the significant role that Sir Walter Scott played in promoting Scottish tourism; commends the team at the Sir Walter Scott Steamship Trust for their stewardship of Stirling's tourism heritage and popular attractions; notes the recent decision by the Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park to approve plans to develop a lookout tower and platform above the Trossachs Pier, as well as reinstate the Roderick Dhu path as part of the project; considers that it is fitting that the site on which Sir Walter Scott was inspired to write one of his most famous poems, Lady of the Lake, will continue to awe and inspire visitors from around the world, and showcase Scotland's natural beauty and heritage for years to come, and congratulates all involved as they continue to improve their community and Stirling's tourism industry.

*S6M-01093 Stuart McMillan: Cathy MacPhail—That the Parliament notes, with great sadness, the passing of much-loved children's author, Cathy MacPhail, who won the Grampian Children's Book Award and Portsmouth Book Award during her career, which saw her write more than 30 books; understands that the Greenock-born author was well known in the community, and further afield, for her work in schools and libraries, and also for her role as an ambassador for the charity Children 1st; further understands that Cathy's books are loved by many people of all ages, and that her books will be her lasting legacy, and hopes that her stories continue to bring enjoyment to readers for many years to come.

*S6M-01092 Stuart McMillan: 6foot Lab CIC Receives £10,000 from National Lottery—That the Parliament congratulates 6foot Lab CIC on being awarded £10,000 from the National Lottery Awards for All Scotland; understands that the Inverclyde-based organisation will use the funding to raise awareness of bees, the environment, and the importance of looking after people's mental health; notes that 6foot Lab CIC intends to do this through a series of art picnics, mural projects, nature walks, the installation of a 'natural playground' and vertical log beehives; welcomes the group's desire to help the environment, while also helping people in Inverclyde become more mindful of their mental wellbeing; wishes the organisation all the best as it prepares to launch these projects, and believes that the National Lottery awards are hugely beneficial for communities across Scotland.

New Subordinate Legislation

New Subordinate Legislation

Laid Only Instruments

The following instrument was laid before the Parliament on 9 September 2021 and is not subject to any parliamentary procedure—

Animals and Wildlife (Penalties, Protections and Powers) (Scotland) Act 2020 (Commencement No. 3 and Transitional Provision) Regulations 2021 (SSI 2021/303 (C. 17))

Laid under section 30(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
