Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-01621 Sarah Boyack: Place2Be – Celebrating 20 Years of Expert Mental Health Support in Scottish Schools—That the Parliament notes that autumn 2021 marks 20 years of Place2Be providing expert mental health support in Scottish schools; understands that Place2Be's work in Scotland started with an initial pilot in two Edinburgh primary schools; further understands that it now reaches over 22,000 pupils and their families in schools across Glasgow, Edinburgh, South Lanarkshire, Stirling, Renfrewshire, Angus, Perth and Kinross, Dundee, North and South Ayrshire and the Highlands; believes that Place2Be is a pioneer in early intervention and prevention, helping children to tackle problems before they escalate and develop into adulthood; understands that Place2Be helps schools to develop a Whole School Approach to mental health support, with the child and their rights at the centre; further understands that Place2Be works closely with education professionals across Scotland, providing support and advice through a partnership with Moray House School of Education and Sport; understands that Place2Be ensures that its services are evidence based and have a demonstrable impact on children and young people; acknowledges the reported findings that over 80% of those with severe difficulties show an improvement in wellbeing after counselling with Place2Be, and notes that Place2Be will be sharing content throughout its 20th year to showcase and celebrate the schools, counsellors, young people, parents and partners who are committed to improving the mental health of children and young people across Scotland.

S6M-01609 Ariane Burgess: Kidical Mass—That the Parliament congratulates participants and organisers of the Kidical Mass event in Inverness on 2 October 2021; understands that this was part of a worldwide event to advocate safe spaces for active travel, especially for young people; commends the 239 "wheelers" who took part in the event, as well as the marshals who kept people safe; notes that Velocity Café, Bicycle Workshop and 42 Cycling helped to organise the event; understands that this event was thought to be the first of its kind in Scotland, and believes that allowing people to participate in active travel safely, rather than choosing to travel by car, is a vital part of meeting Scotland's climate targets.

S6M-01608 Jamie Greene: 110th Taiwanese National Day—That the Parliament passes on its warmest wishes to the Republic of China (Taiwan) on the occasion of the celebration of its 110th

National Day, known as Double Ten Day, on 10 October 2021; notes that the holiday marks the anniversary of the Wuchang Uprising, which eventually led to the establishment of the Republic of China; understands that this year's celebration will involve parades from its armed forces as well as a programme of cultural performances; considers Taiwan to be a valuable partner for Scotland and the United Kingdom, in particular as the fourth largest overseas market for Scotch whisky in 2020; expresses hope that the event will be a safe and enjoyable experience for all involved, despite the limitations of the COVID-19 pandemic, and wishes the Taiwanese diaspora in Scotland a happy celebration. R

S6M-01607 Audrey Nicoll: Recognising the Excellent Work of Deeside Sub Aqua Club and Stonehaven Canoe Club—That the Parliament commends the Deeside Sub Aqua Club and Stonehaven Canoe Club for removing over 100kg of litter from coves, caves and tunnels along the Aberdeenshire coastline; applauds the group for supporting the campaign, Great British Beach Clean, and improving the aesthetic of the Aberdeenshire coastline, while reducing pollution; understands that the clean-up operation included the coastline around Dunnottar Castle, an area of national heritage; considers that projects like these are great examples of community spirit in the Aberdeenshire area; thanks the Marine Conservation Society for organising the event; recognises the effort and skill required by the group to remove litter from these hard-to-reach areas, and wishes both groups great success for the future.

S6M-01606 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Allied Health Professionals (AHP) Day 2021—That the Parliament acknowledges Allied Health Professionals (AHP) Day 2021, which takes place on 14 October 2021; recognises the invaluable contribution played by AHPs in the Scottish health and care sector, including occupational therapists, physiotherapists, speech and language therapists, dietitians, podiatrists, prosthetists and orthoptists, among others; notes what it sees as the benefits of a multidisciplinary team to patient care and outcomes, through applying a holistic approach to care, including improving hospital discharge and services within acute care, social care, primary care, housing, education, and mental health settings; believes that the AHP workforce is a valuable resource, helping people to live longer, healthier lives at home; considers the incredible work of AHPs as an asset to the NHS and the people of Scotland during the COVID-19 pandemic, during which they went above and beyond the call of duty to care; notes its gratitude to AHPs for this service, and calls on the Scottish Government to look closely at workforce planning for AHPs to ensure this workforce is supported, sustainable and well planned.

Supported by: Jackson Carlaw*

S6M-01605 Elena Whitham: Girvan Academy Achieves LGBT Charter at Silver Level—That the Parliament congratulates Girvan Academy on achieving the LGBT Charter at Silver level; recognises the hard work and dedication of pupils and staff in achieving this prestigious award from LGBT Youth Scotland; understands that pupil-led initiatives were a big focus of their practice and policy work, showing a commitment to pupil voice, and welcomes the training and the review of policies, practice and resources that aim to ensure that Girvan Academy goes beyond meeting legislative needs, and is as inclusive as it can be for pupils, staff, parents and the wider community.

Supported by: James Dornan*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Carol Mochan*, Ross Greer*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Colin Beattie*

S6M-01602 Jackie Baillie: Lennox Herald Wins Weekly Newspaper of the Year —That the Parliament congratulates the team at the Lennox Herald for winning Weekly Newspaper of the Year at this year's prestigious Scottish Press Awards; considers that this award is testament to the hard work and commitment that the team at the Lennox Herald has put into delivering hard-hitting local news; understands that local newspapers are the backbone of communities and have been a much-needed source of reliable information and comfort for many during the pandemic; believes that it is vitally important to protect local journalism at all costs, as the sector comes under threat from a lack of funding and a shift to digital news, and wishes the Lennox Herald every success for many years to come, as it continues to provide residents in Dumbarton, the Vale of Leven, Helensburgh and the surrounding area with their news.

S6M-01600 Foysoil Choudhury: Leith Ranked Fourth in World's 50 Coolest

Neighbourhoods for 2021—That the Parliament welcomes the announcement that Leith is ranked fourth in the world's 50 coolest neighbourhood rankings for 2021; notes that Leith has jumped 20 places in the three years since world travel magazine Time Out ranked it as the 24th coolest neighbourhood in the world in 2018; further notes that it placed above popular areas in New York, London, Tokyo and Sydney; understands that the travel magazine and online publication creates its annual world rankings by polling 27,000 city dwellers worldwide on their favourite neighbourhoods, and having Time Out global editors and writers rank locations according to their community spirit, quality of food, drink and nightlife, culture and sustainability efforts, and encourages those outside Leith to make a visit and sample the rich culture Leith has to offer.

Supported by: Pam Gosal*, Bill Kidd*, Martin Whitfield*, Miles Briggs*, Katy Clark*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Colin Beattie*, Neil Bibby*

S6M-01596 Dean Lockhart: Forth Valley College Staff and Students Join the Hedgehog Friendly Campus Campaign

—That the Parliament welcomes the campaign by Forth Valley College to raise awareness and increase the numbers of hedgehogs at their campuses in Stirling, Alloa and Falkirk by joining the Hedgehog Friendly Campus campaign, which is funded by the British Hedgehog Preservation Society; recognises the concerns expressed across the UK about the rapid decline in the hedgehog population, which has fallen by up to 50% in the last 20 years; understands that the species is now classified as being "vulnerable to extinction" due to loss of habitat; supports all those involved in plans to create wildlife corridors and increase habitats, and encourages all schools, colleges and universities across Scotland to join this important biodiversity project.

S6M-01595 Dean Lockhart: University of Stirling Welcomes His Majesty King Carl XVI and Her Majesty Queen Silvia of Sweden

—That the Parliament welcomes the recent visit by His Majesty King Carl XVI and Her Majesty Queen Silvia of Sweden to the Dementia Services Development Centre located within the Faculty of Social Sciences at the University of Stirling; understands that the King and Queen toured the facility, which includes the permanent display of rooms and equipment that have been adapted to support those living with dementia; recognises the continued world leading research carried out at the university to develop innovative housing solutions for those people living with cognitive conditions such as dementia, which aims to allow them to stay in their own homes for longer; notes that the support of the Silviahemmet Foundation, founded by Her Majesty Queen Silvia, helps to fund this vital research into new care technologies, and wishes all those involved in this important research the best of luck in the years ahead.

S6M-01594 Rachael Hamilton: BASC's Our Deer, Community Integrated Deer Management in Scotland

—That the Parliament welcomes the British Association for Shooting and Conservation (BASC) and its partners in launching Our Deer, a plan to place communities at the centre of efforts to manage deer on publicly owned land in Scotland; recognises what it sees as the need to comprehensively rethink deer management on public land, and considers that the stakeholders involved in this new vision for deer management in Scotland are well placed to advise the Scottish Government on addressing the issue.

S6M-01593 Gillian Mackay: Grangemouth High School Receives Vision Schools Holocaust Education Award—That the Parliament congratulates Grangemouth High School on receiving the Vision Schools Holocaust Education Award, which teaches pupils about the Holocaust in the Second World War, when Nazis killed millions of Jewish people, and also contributes to anti-racist education and education for citizenship, as well as supporting religious equality; recognises that the school is the first in the Falkirk area to gain this prestigious award; notes that the school has already received recognition through the Rights Respecting Schools Award and the Mentors in Violence Prevention Programme, and looks forward to welcoming staff and pupils from the school to the Scottish Parliament building in November 2021 to receive the award.

Supported by: Emma Roddick*, Mark Ruskell*, Monica Lennon*, Colin Beattie*, Ross Greer*, Stuart McMillan*, Ruth Maguire*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Bill Kidd*, Ariane Burgess*, Stephen Kerr*

S6M-01584 Alexander Burnett: Santander UK Partners with National Parks UK—That the Parliament welcomes Santander UK's announcement that it has joined National Parks UK in becoming a founding partner of the Net Zero With Nature strategy in the Cairngorms National Park; understands that Santander aims to be net zero by 2050 and, through this partnership, will look to use the natural environment to capture and lock in carbon by funding a new project involving the restoration of 220 hectares of damaged peatland in the Cairngorms National Park, which has the potential to capture more than 16,000 tonnes of CO2 emissions over its first five years; acknowledges that the UK's national parks contain almost a quarter of the UK's peatland, with ecologists estimating that restoring degraded peat could mitigate nearly 5% of the UK's entire annual emissions; understands, however, that these peatlands are mostly degraded, with just one fifth remaining in a near-natural state, and believes that this project will support the UK's net zero target, helping to achieve the Climate Change Committee's target of restoring 79% of the UK's peatlands by 2050, as well as the aim set out in the Scottish Government's Climate Change Plan to be net zero by 2045. R

S6M-01583 Liam McArthur: Royal Mail Begins Drone Trials in Orkney—That the Parliament recognises the start of a two-week drone trial in the Orkney Islands by the Royal Mail to help better connect remote island communities; understands that the postal network will carry out autonomous flights between Kirkwall and the most northerly island community in Orkney, North Ronaldsay, using a twin-engine, UK-built, unmanned aerial vehicle, named Ultra, which can support 100kg of post over 100km; acknowledges the ingenuity of the project being taken forward by Royal Mail and Windracers Ltd, which is in keeping with the world-leading innovation already being showcased in Orkney in areas such as renewable energy and low-carbon transport; wishes all involved with the drone project every success, and looks forward to more detail on the findings ahead of its potential deployment in the future.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Colin Beattie*, Audrey Nicoll*, Douglas Lumsden*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Ruth Maguire*, Jackson Carlaw*, Douglas Ross*, Donald Cameron*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-01582 Emma Harper: Dyslexia Awareness Week —That the Parliament acknowledges Dyslexia Awareness Week, taking place from 4 to 10 October, which, it understands, has seven key themes to mark each day: Launch Day, Adults Day, focussing on dyslexia in the workplace and in higher education, Children's Day, focussing on dyslexia in the school system, World

Dyslexia Day, focusing on dyslexia around the world and the varying and unequal support available to those with dyslexia, Co-occurring Differences Day, focusing on the often overlooked co-occurring differences that accompany dyslexia and the wider neurodiverse community, Visibility Day, focusing on sharing the dyslexia stories of those who would otherwise go unheard and World Mental Health Day, which explores the link between dyslexia and mental health; understands that it is estimated that around one in 10 people in Scotland have dyslexia, and that dyslexia is often particularly prevalent in Scotland's agricultural community; further understands that dyslexia often comes with challenges, which many people with dyslexia feel go unseen because dyslexia itself is not visible; welcomes that Scottish Government funding enabled Dyslexia Scotland to set up a Tutor Bursary Fund during the COVID-19 lockdown, to pay for tutoring for dyslexic children whose parents had been financially affected by COVID-19, providing for over 100 hours of tutoring to children and young people; thanks Dyslexia Scotland for all that it does to raise awareness of, and support those with, dyslexia in Scotland, and encourages everyone to be dyslexia aware and to access the Dyslexia Scotland Toolkit, which is available online at dyslexiascotland.org.uk/our-leaflets.

S6M-01581 Evelyn Tweed: Praise for Willow Houseplants, Doune—That the Parliament notes the recent success of the Scottish Business Awards 2021, which aim to recognise the very best talent and practices in businesses across the country; understands the difficulties businesses have encountered during the COVID-19 pandemic; recognises all businesses and organisations that have adapted their work patterns and practices in order to keep employees and members of the public safe; believes that small to medium-sized enterprises remain the lifeblood of the economy, particularly in rural communities; congratulates Stirling business Willow Houseplants for winning the Best Independent Retailer Award 2021, which is a testament to the care and attention its team has invested in its business and community in Doune, and wishes the business well, as Stirling and Scotland continue to recover economically and socially from the COVID-19 pandemic.

S6M-01580 Dean Lockhart: Lifesaving Defibrillator for St Ninians—That the Parliament praises the efforts of St Ninians Community Council, in securing the installation of a defibrillator device at the toll shopping precinct; understands that over 3000 people across Scotland of all ages suffer an out-of-hospital cardiac arrest every year; congratulates the members of St Ninians Community Council in securing the necessary funding and location to enable members of the public to access and use the device easily, and recognises the huge benefit access to a defibrillator has in increasing the chances of survival for those suffering a cardiac arrest.

S6M-01508 Pam Duncan-Glancy: Glasgow Centre for Inclusive Living - Retirement of Etienne D'Aboville—That the Parliament recognises the extensive and long standing contribution of Etienne D'Aboville to the Independent Living Movement; commends his dedication to disabled people's equality and human rights and considerable track record in securing them for many disabled people across Glasgow and beyond; recognises the importance of user led organisations like the Glasgow Centre for Inclusive Living and leaders like Etienne, who inspire other disabled people to lead too; congratulates him for his work; notes that he retires this week from his role as CEO of the Glasgow Centre for Inclusive Living; thanks him for all that he did, and wishes him well in his retirement. R

S6M-01494 Beatrice Wishart: Shetland Young Fiddler of the Year 2021 Takes Place—That the Parliament commends Shetland Young Fiddler of the Year 2021; welcomes the return of the competition, which was cancelled in April 2020 and postponed in April 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic; notes the mitigations that were in place to try to limit the spread of the virus; congratulates the winner, Magnus Williamson, who won both the Senior Open and Senior

Traditional competitions, and all the winners across all the categories; commends the judges, organisers and all who took part for bringing back a successful competition, and looks forward to the future events showcasing Shetland's young talent.

S6M-01465 Beatrice Wishart: Shetland Wool Week 2021—That the Parliament celebrates Shetland Wool Week 2021 and notes that, due to the ongoing COVID-19 precautions, an online version is taking place between 25 September and 3 October 2021; understands that events will take place from the most southern tip of Shetland to the most northerly island of Unst, which is famous for its beautiful lacework, with many locations in-between; congratulates Wilma Malcolmson, of Shetland Designer, for being patron two years in a row and for providing “Da Crofter’s Kep”, the official knitting pattern of Wool Week 2021; acknowledges the event is internationally acclaimed and a celebration of Britain’s most northerly native sheep, the textile industry and the rural farming community in Shetland; appreciates that Shetland knitwear has a deserved respect gained from many generations of hard working crofters and knitters producing some of the finest lace and Fair Isle knitwear; further understands that this year there will be an extensive range of exhibitions, classes and events, which will cover many different subjects, including weaving, spinning, dyeing, Fair Isle and lace knitting, as well as many other fascinating subject areas; commends the organisers, and looks forward to Wool Week’s continued success.

S6M-01368 Annabelle Ewing: Congratulations to Award-winning Cowdenbeath Funeral Directors—That the Parliament congratulates Colin Sneddon Funeral Directors, in Cowdenbeath, on being named Fife’s best funeral directors at the Scotland Prestige Awards 2021/22; considers that all staff have worked hard, especially during the pandemic, to provide the outstanding service that has led to this award, and wishes both Colin and his staff the best for the future.

The following instrument was laid before Parliament on 8 October 2021 and is not subject to any parliamentary procedure—

Criminal Justice and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2010 (Commencement No. 16) Order 2021 (SSI 2021/355 (C.27))
Laid under section 30(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
