S6M-01696 Jeremy Balfour: 18 October Marks Annual Anti-Slavery Day—That the Parliament notes that 18 October marks the annual Anti-Slavery Day; is aware that, while Scotland has a good track record in adopting measures to tackle modern-day slavery, human trafficking remains a serious, if often invisible, problem in Scotland today; considers that Anti-Slavery Day provides an opportunity to reflect upon the tireless efforts of those in the past, notably the Christian politician, William Wilberforce, who led an ultimately successful campaign against the slave trade in the face of fierce opposition; further considers that it is an opportunity to assess what practical action can be taken by those in authority now to continue the legacy of Wilberforce and others; believes that one such measure, in light of well documented and troubling links between human trafficking and the sex trade, would be to criminalise men who purchase sex, thereby dealing with one of the main drivers of human trafficking at source, and, in light of commercial sexual exploitation reportedly being regarded by the Scottish Government and others as a form of violence against women, further believes that criminalisation of the men who purchase sex is the only logical next step.

S6M-01620 Michael Marra: Protect Access to Cash—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the trend of declining cash usage in society; believes that this process has been driven by various digital and demographic changes, but also by the habit of charging people for access to their own cash; considers that it accelerated over the course of the COVID-19 pandemic, with some reports suggesting that cash usage may have reduced by as much as half at the height of lockdowns; understands that the move to a cash-free society may seem inevitable; is concerned, however, that those who do still rely on cash, including the unbanked, those receiving benefits and victims of abuse, are at risk of becoming further excluded, and calls on the Scottish Government to take action to protect access to cash, by removing the charging of non-domestic rates for cash machines, and closely examining what other measures can protect cash as a viable method of payment in society.

New Subordinate Legislation

New Subordinate Legislation

Affirmative instruments

The following draft instrument was laid before Parliament on 20 October 2021 and is subject to the affirmative procedure—

Relevant Adjustments to Common Parts (Disabled Persons) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2021 (SSI 2021/draft)

Laid under section 210(6) of the Equality Act 2010

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
