Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

*S6M-02639 Bill Kidd: NPT Review Conference and Anniversary of TPNW Entry into Force—

That the Parliament recognises that the UN Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons (TPNW) entered into force on 22 January 2021; notes that the first meeting of state parties (1st MSP) will take place in Vienna from 22 to 24 March 2022; further notes that the 1st MSP will determine the rules of procedure for observers and state participants, deadlines for disarmament, verification and removal of nuclear weapons, and victim remediation with an emphasis on the disproportionate impact on indigenous communities and women and girls; recognises that the Review Conference of the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT) will take place from 4 to 28 January 2022; understands that the UK is a state party to this treaty, and is accordingly bound by Article 6, which is to "pursue negotiations in good faith on effective measures relating to cessation of the nuclear arms race at an early date and to nuclear disarmament"; believes that civil society groups in Scotland, including in the Glasgow Anniesland constituency, consider that the decision to increase the UK's nuclear stockpile creates a higher risk of an accident on Scottish roads, as warheads are transported to and from Faslane, Coulport, and notes the reported calls from civil society groups for the UK Government to uphold its commitment to Article 6 of the NPT and to engage with the 1st MSP on the TPNW in Vienna next year.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-02689 Emma Harper: Praising the Work of the Puppy Trafficking Working Group and Scottish SPCA—

That the Parliament supports the continued and ongoing efforts of the Puppy Trafficking Working Group, chaired by the Scottish SPCA, which brings together a wide range of stakeholders to discuss actions across the UK to tackle the illegal puppy trade; notes that the group, established in 2016, includes the Scottish SPCA, the RSPCA, Dog's Trust, the Kennel Club, HMRC, the Scottish Government, DEFRA and DERA officials, Blue Cross, special investigation teams, and local authority trading standards officers, including from Dumfries and Galloway and Highland councils; notes what it sees as the vital importance of the Puppy

Trafficking Working Group in allowing a shared platform to discuss cases, actions and examples of best practice in tackling the illegal puppy trade which, it understands, in Scotland, largely operates out of the Port of Cairnryan in Dumfries and Galloway, although dogs can also be brought from other parts of the UK into Scotland; welcomes that, as a result of the group's work, initiatives such as the Scottish SPCA's Assured Puppy Breeder Scheme and the Scottish Government's Say No to Puppy Dealers programme, have been created; encourages everyone to ensure they are aware of the signs of a trafficked puppy, and of the best-practice advice, such as always seeing a pup in its home setting with its mother, before buying; underlines the Scottish SPCA campaign, Keep Me Off Your Xmas List, which states that animals should not be an impulse buy, or purchased as a surprise present at any time, but especially over Christmas; understands that, in previous years, the Scottish SPCA has taken in many animals that were bought as gifts and were then abandoned once the novelty had worn off; considers that buying a pet should not be decided on a whim, that people must understand the commitment required to give the care and attention that a pet needs before buying one, and that pets should always be bought from a reputable source; wishes the Scottish SPCA and all others on the Puppy Trafficking Working Group well for the future, and encourages all to check their website before buying a puppy, saynotopuppydealers.co.uk.

S6M-02682 Martin Whitfield: Thanks to the Scottish Parliament Staff—That the Parliament thanks the entire Scottish Parliament staff for ensuring that the Parliament remains safe for MSPs, their staff and outside visitors during the COVID-19 pandemic; believes that the Scottish Parliament staff have gone above and beyond to ensure services remain operational during the pandemic, from the Chamber Desk, the canteen, the cafes, the cleaners, the Post Office, the IT team to committee clerks and more; considers that the Parliament has never faced this kind of pressure since its creation; acknowledges the fast reaction taken by staff during the pandemic, and wishes the entire Parliament staff a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

the Dance School of the Year Awards; applauds this fantastic achievement; understands that the awards look to celebrate often-overlooked achievements of dance schools, their teachers and their students; notes what it sees as the vital work that the Aberdeen Academy of Performing Arts does for the local community, providing much more than just a dance lesson, by offering support, discipline and teaching young people how to work as a team; understands that dance schools across Scotland have had a very tough time throughout the COVID-19 pandemic and that, in response, the Academy, alongside dance schools around the country, offered virtual classes, which aimed to support the mental and physical wellbeing of students, and wishes everyone at Aberdeen Academy of Performing Arts all the best for the future.

S6M-02633 Liam Kerr: University of Aberdeen Soil Science Centre Awarded The Queen's Anniversary Prize—That the Parliament congratulates the University of Aberdeen Soil Science Centre on receiving The Queen's Anniversary Prize, which is granted by Her Majesty The Queen; understands that this was awarded to the University for its work in actively participating in the COP26 Climate Summit in Glasgow, and its research on the promotion of the control of greenhouse gas emissions and sustainable food production, to contribute to action to tackle climate change; applauds what it sees as this fantastic achievement, celebrating outstanding research by the Soil Science Centre in tackling climate change, and hopes that this great work can continue into the future.

S6M-02629 Marie McNair: Dunelves of the Shelves Bring Cheer to Clydebank—That the Parliament notes that the retail store, Dunelm, has been delivering joy with its Christmas gift appeal and upcycling old decorations for use in care homes and other community charities; understands that the company delivered 18,000 gifts last year to people who would not usually receive a present; further understands that it has been another successful year, with the Clydebank community fulfilling 457 gift requests across nine schools, four nurseries, a care home, Clydebank Women's Aid and two food banks, and applauds everyone who participated in the gifting campaign and who helped the staff of Dunelm and the Dunelves spread wonderful Christmas cheer.

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.
