Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

*S6M-02635 Fulton MacGregor: Scottish National Blood Transfusion Service —That the Parliament recognises the work of the Scottish National Blood Transfusion Service (SNBTS); understands that the SNBTS, which had its beginnings in the 1930s, is the specialist provider of safe high quality blood, tissues and cells products and services in Scotland; notes that its cornerstone policy is to ensure that NHS Scotland has enough blood to meet the transfusion needs of patients in Scotland; praises the SNBTS for what it considers diligent work during the COVID-19 pandemic in continuing to provide a lifesaving service, despite the hardships brought on by the pandemic; notes with concern reports that Scotland has fewer registered blood donors than at any other point this century, with the number of people donating blood supplies having dropped by 13,000 over the past year; believes that estimates suggest SNBTS would need to welcome 3,300 donors per week to ensure that blood supplies remain at safe levels; supports the SNBTS Amazing Stories campaign, which highlighted personal stories of those who have received lifesaving blood donations, and notes, therefore, the calls encouraging people across the country, including in Coatbridge and Chryston, to sign up to become blood donors if they are able.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-02688 Alexander Burnett: Asda Foundation Supports Local Groups in Huntly Area Through Green Token Giving—That the Parliament welcomes that the Asda Foundation has awarded both the Huntly Friends of Guiding and Lumsden School Parent Council £500 as winners of the customer vote for the Green Token Giving fund; understands that the Asda Foundation is a charitable company that provides grants to a range of good causes in Scotland; further understands that runners up Wee Toots, Gordon Rural Action, Huntly Community Minibus and Friends of Huntly Jubilee Hospital funding were also awarded £200 each to support their projects; believes that this funding will be put to excellent use in the local community, and commends the Asda Foundation for continuing to support community projects.

*S6M-02686 Marie McNair: Douglas Academy Eco-Schools Scotland Green Flag Award—That the Parliament congratulates Douglas Academy in Milngavie for achieving its seventh Eco-Schools Scotland Green Flag Award; understands that the Keep Scotland Beautiful award was

S6M-02663 Ariane Burgess: Funding for Gaelic—That the Parliament congratulates the five island community groups that have been selected to receive £49,500 from the Gaelic Communities Fund; recognises the work of Community Land Scotland and Bòrd na Gàidhlig for organising and funding this scheme; welcomes the work that Brager and Arnol Community Trust in Lewis, North Harris Trust, Portree and Braes Community Trust on Skye, Horshader Community Development on Lewis and the Tìree Community Development plan to do with this funding; understands that programmes funded include Gaelic rangers for outdoor events, a photography exhibition with a positive image of the Gaelic language, and community health and wellbeing events; supports comments made by Bòrd na Gàidhlig that these trusts deliver invaluable, innovative work to help to ensure that Gaelic continues to be used, and hopes that Gaelic will continue to thrive as a Scottish language.

Supported by: Kenneth Gibson*, Ross Greer*, Miles Briggs*, Emma Roddick*, Gillian Mackay*, Stuart McMillan*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Colin Beattie*

S6M-02662 Meghan Gallacher: Lanarkshire War Hero Dies Aged 97—That the Parliament recognises the passing of Ian Forsyth MBE, who it considers to be a Lanarkshire war hero; understands that Ian joined the Army in 1942, as part of the first reconnaissance regiment at Lockerbie, then moved on to the 15th-19th Hussars Reconnaissance for the 11th Armoured Division in April 1942; understands that Ian was one of the first British soldiers to arrive at the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp in 1945; congratulates Ian on being named Senior Hero at the Daily Record's Our Heroes Awards in 2011, for his efforts in raising more than £1 million for other veterans; notes that, after the Second World War, he taught in various schools, including Larkhall Academy, and further notes that his work in the Polish community was recognised first by the awarding of the Cavalier's Cross, and then the prestigious Officer's Cross of the Order of Merit of the Republic of Poland.

Supported by: Douglas Ross*, Stuart McMillan*, Alexander Stewart*, Monica Lennon*, Russell Findlay*, Kenneth Gibson*, Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Bill Kidd*, Murdo Fraser*, Colin Beattie*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Sue Webber*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Donald Cameron*, Bob Doris*, Tess White*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Finlay Carson*

S6M-02661 Gillian Mackay: Space to Play Campaign Calls for Play Strategy—That the Parliament commends the Space to Play campaign on its petition calling for South Lanarkshire Council to prepare a play strategy, to open up Multi Use Games Areas (MUGA) out with school hours and to renew all local play parks; considers that parks and Multi Use Games Areas are fabulous spaces to help improve health, wellbeing and community activity, safely away from traffic hazards; understands that these MUGA have been built alongside new primary schools across South Lanarkshire over the past decade for community use, and believes that implementing these actions will help ensure that South Lanarkshire upholds the rights of children to play and be heard, as enshrined in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

Supported by: Monica Lennon*, Colin Beattie*, Ross Greer*, Audrey Nicoll*, Bill Kidd*, Maggie Chapman*, Stuart McMillan*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*

Ninians's High School in Giffnock; understands that, under his stewardship, the school was awarded the best ever secondary inspection report to be issued by Education Scotland; notes John's dedication to his profession, with over four decades teaching in Scotland; commends what it sees as his dedication to supporting pupils, parents and members of staff, by leading by example and helping everyone around them, and wishes him and his wife Helena the very best for their retirement.

Supported by: Martin Whitfield*, Clare Adamson*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Miles Briggs*, Kenneth Gibson*, Michael Marra*, Colin Beattie*, Annabelle Ewing*, Russell Findlay*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Foyso Choudhury*, Collette Stevenson*, Jackie Baillie*, Sarah Boyack*, Kaukab Stewart*

S6M-02648 Pam Gosal: Asda Green Token Giving Funding, West Scotland—That the Parliament congratulates the recipients of Asda's Green Token Giving Programme funding; notes that projects are awarded funding based on votes provided by customers in ASDA stores; understands that 42 projects in West Scotland have received funding with an amount totalling £12,600, and further understands that, in 2020, the Asda Foundation invested more than £500,000 in community projects and good causes in Scotland.

Supported by: Donald Cameron*, Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Stuart McMillan*, Edward Mountain*, Jeremy Balfour*, Russell Findlay*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Jamie Greene*

S6M-02647 Liam Kerr: Denis Law Legacy Trust Streetsport Programme —That the Parliament congratulates the Denis Law Legacy Trust's successful Streetsport programme, in partnership with Robert Gordon University, which, it understands, is helping hundreds of young people in Aberdeen; understands that the programme currently offers nine different sessions per week around Aberdeen, where youngsters can get involved in a wide range of free sport and creative activity to help boost their confidence and their mental health; further understands that this programme received a £10,000 grant from NHS Grampian Endowment Fund, which helps to allow these safe spaces to be offered to young people to engage in activities; applauds what it sees as this fantastic programme, which recently recorded its busiest ever quarter in getting younger people active, and hopes that this great work can continue into the future.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Donald Cameron*, Edward Mountain*, Jamie Greene*, Stuart McMillan*, Natalie Don*

S6M-02646 Ross Greer: Gift Appeal for East Dunbartonshire Women's Aid—That the Parliament thanks the generous individuals and families who donated to the recent Bearsden and Milngavie Christmas gift appeal, which is in aid of East Dunbartonshire Women's Aid; understands that donations included £425 in cash and vouchers for families, in addition to dozens of presents for women and children, and celebrates what it sees as the incredible work of East Dunbartonshire Women's Aid in supporting vulnerable women and children, including offering refuge accommodation, outreach services and a 24-hour crisis helpline.

S6M-02643 Kaukab Stewart: Happy 125th Birthday to Glasgow's Underground—That the Parliament congratulates Glasgow's underground on its 125th anniversary; understands that the Glasgow underground, which first opened to the public in 1896, is the third oldest underground railway in the world; further understands that, in its first year of full operation, it carried almost 10 million passengers; notes that the Glasgow Corporation purchased the subway in 1924, before electrifying the antiquated cable traction in 1935; further notes that the subway system was overhauled and modernised in 1974 by the Greater Glasgow Passenger Transport Executive, which later became SPT, and began a further programme of significant modernisation in 2011; welcomes this £288 million programme of works, supported by the Scottish Government, which, it understands, has funded the full-scale upgrade aimed at improving all services for the 40,000 daily passengers, and the 13 million who use the underground annually, and wishes the Glasgow underground, affectionately known locally as the Subway or the Clockwork Orange, every continued success for its next 125 years.

Supported by: Evelyn Tweed*, Kenneth Gibson*, Stuart McMillan*

S6M-02642 Jackie Dunbar: Paget's Awareness Day 2022—That the Parliament notes that 11 January 2022 will mark Paget's Awareness Day; notes that 11 January was selected to mark the birth of Sir James Paget, who first discovered Paget's disease; notes that the disease affects the normal repair and renewal process of bones, and can affect any bone in the human body; understands that the risk of developing Paget's disease increases with age, that it is most commonly diagnosed in those over the age of 50, and that approximately 1% of people living in the UK are affected by the disease; further understands that while there are still some uncertainties about the cause of Paget's disease, it is thought to be due to a combination of genetic and environmental influences; notes that Paget's disease can be identified either through an x-ray, a blood test or a bone scan; understands that many individuals may be unaware that they have Paget's disease, and considers that more needs to be done to raise public awareness of the disease.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Bill Kidd*, John Mason*, Kenneth Gibson*, Sue Webber*, Rona Mackay*, Evelyn Tweed*, Stephanie Callaghan*

S6M-02641 Kenneth Gibson: 200th Anniversary of the First Hellenic Republic—That the Parliament acknowledges the 200th Anniversary of the First Hellenic Republic; understands that Greek citizens declared their independence from the Ottoman Empire on 1 January 1822 and established the first provisional Greek state at the First National Assembly of Epidaurus during the War of Independence; further understands that the Greeks fought until 1829 and, following this, worked to create a functional country, by addressing the issues that faced a war-ravaged Greece and adopting the first Greek constitution, and understands that, on 20 October 1827, at the Battle of Navarino, the Royal Navy played a decisive role in helping to secure Greek independence.

S6M-02637 Jackie Dunbar: ASDA's Discount for Blue Light Card Holders—That the Parliament welcomes the recent announcement by ASDA that all emergency and social care workers are being offered a Blue Light Card; understands that this card will allow emergency and social care workers to receive 10% off their shopping throughout the Christmas period; further understands that this discount will be available in all ASDA stores, including 61 stores in Scotland; notes that the discount is available from 6 December 2021 to 2 January 2022, and acknowledges that the Blue Light Card is a nationally recognised scheme, which provides workers in the NHS, emergency services, social care sector and the armed forces with a range of discounts.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Kenneth Gibson*, Colin Beattie*, Stephanie Callaghan*

S6M-02636 Neil Gray: Neena Mahal Retiring from NHS Lanarkshire—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the exceptional work carried out by Neena Mahal MBE in her role as Chair of NHS Lanarkshire's Board of Directors for the last eight years; commends her for the commitment it believes she has shown to ensuring that health care within the area is maintained at a high level and to securing a replacement for University Hospital Monklands in the Airdrie area; applauds what it sees as her willingness to interact with elected members across the spectrum on all health board issues, and wishes her a happy and enjoyable retirement from the NHS Lanarkshire Board.

S6M-02628 Carol Mochan: Congratulations President Boric—That the Parliament welcomes and congratulates the newly-elected socialist President of Chile, Gabriel Boric, on his victory in the 2021 Presidential Election; expresses its enduring solidarity and desire to work with the people of Chile and promote international cooperation between the two countries; hopes that the Boric Presidency will deliver on what it understands were its campaign promises of an inclusive government that will stand against poverty and inequality, particularly as Chile continues with the constitutional reforms, which began following the political demonstrations that started in October 2019, and wishes President Boric and the people of Chile prosperity and peace in the years to come.

Supported by: Bill Kidd*, Ross Greer*, Richard Leonard*

S6M-02626 Pauline McNeill: Congratulations Jen Beattie—That the Parliament applauds Scotland national team and Arsenal FC footballer, Jen Beattie, on being awarded the Helen Rollason Award at the 2021 BBC Sports Personality of the Year Awards; understands that Jen was diagnosed with breast cancer in October 2020, continued to play for club and country, and that she is now cancer-free; commends what it sees as her bravery and openness in speaking of her experience, and her dedication to encouraging others to get screened; understands that the award recognises outstanding achievement in the face of adversity; congratulates Jen Beattie on this incredible accomplishment, and wishes her every success in the future.

Written questions lodged on 23 December 2021

S6W-05020 Siobhian Brown: To ask the Scottish Government what its position is on whether the contract for Valneva COVID-19 vaccines should be reinstated and what representations it can make to the UK Government in this regard, in light of reports that a number of experts, including a member of the Joint Committee on Vaccines and Immunisation, have expressed support for the Valneva vaccine as possibly an effective defence against the COVID-19 Omicron variant.

S6W-05205 Oliver Mundell: To ask the Scottish Government whether it will make commit to passing on in full any Barnett consequentials arising from the UK Government's sector-specific funding announcements in response to COVID-19 to the relevant sector.

S6W-05206 Oliver Mundell: To ask the Scottish Government whether it expects local authorities to develop new consultation processes on river catchment management and individual property protection alternatives to address flooding, in light of developing environmental considerations and policies.

S6W-05207 Oliver Mundell: To ask the Scottish Government how it plans to fulfil the commitment to fund the 40 SEPA prioritised Flood Risk Management schemes, in light of COSLA leaders' agreement, as notified in the elected members briefing of 6 July 2021, to pause schemes that were not legally committed by local authorities.

S6W-05208 Oliver Mundell: To ask the Scottish Government, in relation to COSLA leaders' agreement, as notified in the elected members briefing of 6 July 2021, to pause Flood Risk Management schemes that were not legally committed by local authorities, what its position is on how the term "not legally committed" should be (a) interpreted and (b) applied by local authorities.

S6W-05211 Oliver Mundell: To ask the Scottish Government, in relation to COSLA leaders' agreement, as notified in the elected members briefing of 6 July 2021, to pause Flood Risk Management schemes that were not legally committed by local authorities, whether it expects local authorities to inform their local populations that Flood Risk Management schemes are considered (a) legally committed and (b) not legally committed.

S6W-05248 Sharon Dowey: To ask the Scottish Government what consideration it has given to exempting aviation industry staff members from the new COVID-19 rules requiring individuals to undertake (a) a pre-departure test, (b) self-isolation until a negative "day 2" test result, (c) a "day 2" PCR test instead of a lateral flow test where they have come into contact with someone who has tested positive and (d) other temporary emergency restrictions.

S6W-05253 Dean Lockhart: To ask the Scottish Government whether it remains committed, in an independent Scotland, to retaining the pound sterling within a formal monetary union with the rest of the UK unless certain tests are met, and, if so, whether it will provide a breakdown of what those economic tests are.

S6W-05254 Dean Lockhart: To ask the Scottish Government whether it has adopted, as part of its plans for an independent Scotland, the terms of the motion reportedly passed at the SNP

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

European Charter of Local Self-Government (Incorporation) (Scotland) Bill (M)

Passed, 23 March 2021

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
