S6M-02714 Alex Rowley: Increasing Energy Prices—That the Parliament believes that increasing energy prices should be treated as a national emergency, in order to help tackle what it sees as the ongoing cost of living crisis; understands that the UK Government's energy price cap will be revised by Ofgem in February 2022, which may see customer bills rising from April; recognises the reports from industry experts that indicate energy prices will increase by at least 50% this year, which is on top of already increased energy costs; understands that the average household bill may increase by over £700 a year from April alone, pushing the average cost to

£2,000 a year; calls on the UK Government to take action on addressing these increasing costs as a matter of national priority before more people are forced to choose between heating and eating; expresses concern that many families are reportedly already struggling with household bills and that any further increase in energy costs may see more and more pushed into, or deeper into, fuel poverty; is worried that older people will be most at risk from these increased costs, which it considers could have serious health impacts and may endanger lives; is shocked that, according to the latest figures from Energy Action Scotland, an average of 24% of households across Scotland are already in fuel poverty, and supports the calls on the UK Government to cut VAT on energy bills, redistribute the VAT windfall already received to help those with the lowest incomes, and consider radical reforms to ensure that vulnerable fuel poor households are protected.

S6M-02701 Kenneth Gibson: Remembering Victims of the Soviet Union—That the Parliament acknowledges the 30th anniversary of the dissolution of the Soviet Union; is aware that 26 December 1991 marked the end of the USSR's 69-year-old existence as a sovereign state; remembers the reported 20 million Soviet citizens that are estimated to have been put to death by the regime or who died through repression, epidemics and famines that were a direct result of Bolshevik policies, from what it considers the crushing and reported massacre of participants in the Kronstadt sailors revolt, and the reported imposition of the Holodomar on Ukraine and ethnic Ukrainian areas of Russia, to the estimated 1.6 million people who it understands died during forced population transfers of "Kulaks" and other, it considers, often imagined, enemies of the regime, as well as 681,692 people who were reportedly executed between 1937 and 1938 alone; understands that a minimum of 2.7 million people died in Soviet Gulags, labour colonies and special settlements; recalls the Nazi-Soviet Pact, which it considers enabled Hitler to invade Poland, and the oppression of Eastern European nations annexed as a result of that deal, including, it understands, mass executions and deportations followed by the forced exile to Siberia and inhospitable parts of Central Asia of entire, often non-Christian, non-Slavic, minorities in the Soviet Union, such as the Chechens, Crimean Tartars and Kalmyks, with, it further understands, colossal loss of life, cultural obliteration and psychological trauma; recalls the reported antisemitic "Doctors Plot", the crushing of the 1953 East German Workers revolt, 1956 Hungarian Revolution, 1968 Prague Spring, the arrest and incarceration in psychiatric hospitals of free-thinkers and "refuseniks", who sought to emigrate to Israel, and the December 1979 invasion of Afghanistan, which, it understands, ultimately brought about the collapse of the politically and economically bankrupt Soviet system; notes with concern reports that, in the two decades since taking power in the Russian Federation, President Vladimir Putin has steadily rolled back many civil rights and freedoms gained following the dissolution of the Soviet Union; regrets that Russian prosecutors have reportedly moved to liquidate the archive and human rights centre of Memorial International, Russia's most prominent human rights organisation, which it understands dedicates its work to preserving the memory of all those imprisoned in Gulags between 1929 and the death of Joseph Stalin in 1953; understands that Memorial International, which continues to advocate for human rights in contemporary Russia, is being accused of "justifying terrorist activities" for its inclusion of members of imprisoned religious groups on its list of political prisoners, and considers this to be an attempt to control and sanitise the historical narrative by rewriting the memory of what it sees as one of the most painful times in Russia's history.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
