S6M-02833 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Support for the BBC —That the Parliament notes what it considers the UK Government's overt threats to the funding structure of the BBC; believes that it is important to defend the BBC's independence and impartiality, which it sees as a crucial part of the democratic process; acknowledges the role of the licence fee, without which it considers that the BBC would be less able to produce fair, unbiased and challenging content, free from any interference by advertisers, shareholders, and political interests; recalls reports of the Scottish National Party's threat to boycott the BBC licence fee and of its attack on a prominent BBC journalist during the Independence referendum, which reportedly led to 4,000 people marching on the BBC's headquarters; believes that the Prime Minister's reported position on the BBC is clearly the action of a government that, it considers, is in disarray and desperately trying to distract from its own incredible incompetence, arrogance and disunity; calls for a defence of the current funding structure of the BBC, without which, it believes, the BBC would be less able to produce fair, unbiased and challenging content, and notes what it sees as the vital role of the BBC as a fact-based broadcaster, both in this country and around the world, at a time when, it considers, the very notion of truth itself is increasingly ignored and undermined.

Supported by: Martin Whitfield*, Liam McArthur*

S6M-02694 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Awareness for Alcohol Harm—That the Parliament notes the reported findings of Drinkaware's latest annual monitor survey, which tracks alcohol consumption across the UK; understands, with concern, that the annual YouGov survey of over 9,000 adults in the UK, including 1,340 in Scotland, reportedly found that 29% of high-risk drinkers in Scotland were drinking more in May 2021 than before the COVID-19 pandemic; considers that these findings suggest that habits adopted in 2020, when COVID-19 restrictions were most severe, are now ingrained, and urges anyone who thinks that they may be affected by this issue, or knows someone that is, to seek help.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
