S6M-02974 Paul O'Kane: 50th Anniversary of Bloody Sunday—That the Parliament recognises the 50th anniversary of Bloody Sunday on 30 January 2022; notes that, in what became known as Bloody Sunday, 13 men and teenagers were shot dead, with a 14th victim dying later from injuries, by British soldiers in Derry in 1972, while participating in a peaceful protest march organised by the Northern Ireland Civil Rights Association; understands that 12 others were shot and wounded, that all were unarmed and were not posing a threat of causing death or serious injury, and that many were shot while fleeing or assisting other civilians who were injured; acknowledges the inquiry by Lord Saville of Newdigate initiated in 1998 and subsequent report published in 2010, which found that unjustifiable firing by soldiers was the cause of deaths and injuries; further acknowledges the UK Government's unqualified acceptance of the report and that the killings were "unjustified" and "unjustifiable", as described in the subsequent apology by the then Prime Minister, David Cameron, and believes that the 50th anniversary is a moment for reflection on the darkest days of the troubles in Northern Ireland, which impacted people who lived there and many of their families living in the West Scotland region and other parts of Scotland, a time to remember those who died and an opportunity to learn from the past and move forward in peace and reconciliation.

commitment towards the Armed Forces Covenant, and for its tireless work for the benefit of HM Forces personnel, veterans, their families and military communities right across Scotland.

S6M-02967 Paul Sweeney: War Pensions and Armed Forces Compensation Payments—That the Parliament recognises the immense sacrifices that veterans have made; agrees that veterans and their loved ones deserve to be fairly compensated for injury, illness and death occurring during active service; notes the concerns of advocacy groups that the current process for claiming War Pensions and Armed Forces Compensation payments is not fit for purpose; further notes that these advocacy groups assert that many veterans give up on claims due to the system's complexity and a lack of support in applying; understands that advocacy groups have deep concerns about Veterans UK's current practice in assigning medical assessors to claims; further understands that veterans are at high risk of poor mental health, poverty and suicide, and calls on the UK Government to honour its duty of care to veterans by launching an independent inquiry into the failings of the current system.

S6M-02962 Liam Kerr: Commending Environmental Charity Hubbub—That the Parliament commends the work being done by the environmental charity, Hubbub, in working to help bring a community fridge to Aberdeenshire; notes that, in partnership with the Co-op, Hubbub is calling on community groups to apply for grants of up to £4,000 to roll out community fridges to communities in the north east; understands that community fridges reduce food waste and empower communities to help each other, through activities such as cookery sessions and grow your own fruit and vegetable workshops; applauds this initiative, and the 250 community fridges that it understands are already established across the UK, which are used by 460,000 visitors, and with each fridge redistributing 2.4 tonnes of food per month, in 2020, and hopes that this work can continue in the future.

S6M-02958 James Dornan: 50th Anniversary of Bloody Sunday—That the Parliament commemorates the lives of the 14 innocent men who were unlawfully shot down by soldiers from the British Army Parachute Regiment during a civil rights march in Derry on 30 January 1972; condemns the actions of those who fired on unarmed civil rights marches; welcomes the long-awaited Saville report, which contained contradictions to the Widgery report, widely described as an establishment "whitewash", by highlighting the innocence of all those injured and killed by British soldiers, whose actions were described as "unjustified" and "unjustifiable" in an apology by a former Prime Minister; regrets that the families of the victims had to wait so long to receive this recognition, if not, it considers, justice, and acknowledges the hope that, even now, on this, the 50th, anniversary of the dreadful event, it is not too late for justice to be served for those most affected by the actions of soldiers of the Parachute Regiment on that dreadful day.

S6M-02956 Rona Mackay: Tribute to Mr John Jaap—That the Parliament pays tribute to the late Mr John Jaap, whose life in Kirkintilloch and the surrounding areas brought much joy to the constituents of Strathkelvin and Bearsden; understands that Mr Jaap was nominated for the Freedom of Kirkintilloch in 2012 and recognised by the Provost for his commitment to the local area and its residents; commends his 25 years of service with the local authority in public-facing roles; delights that his musical talents as an accomplished musician led him to become the organist in several local churches, the resident musician in a social club, active member of dance bands, and a popular provider of uplifting musical events in local care homes; recognises that Mr Jaap founded and coordinated the Lenzie Musical Association in the 1970s, and became heavily involved in arranging music, leading rehearsals, and conducting for this choral and orchestral group; commends the sharing of his experience, knowledge and reflections through an online blog, which has gathered much momentum; celebrates the life of whom it considers to be a quite incredible gentleman, and sends its condolences to his family, friends, ex-colleagues, and all those whose lives were touched by Mr Jaap's warmth and generosity of spirit.

S6M-02955 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Lydia Reid and a Public Inquiry into the Unauthorised Use of Baby Remains—That the Parliament recognises Lydia Reid who, it understands, is carrying out a hunger strike to seek justice and call for the remains of her deceased baby to be returned to her for burial; shares her concerns that, despite legislation, the remains of a deceased loved one could still be unknowingly kept from their family and even used for medical testing without the permission of the parents, which, it understands, happened in Lydia's case; believes that Lydia is not alone and that her experience has had the same impact as the baby ashes scandal that took place in Mortonhall, between 1967 and 2011, and considers that there is a need for a public inquiry to establish the facts so that Lydia, and other families affected, can have peace and to ensure that nothing like this ever happens again.

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
