Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-03048 Jenni Minto: Recognition of Dr Elsie Inglis—That the Parliament considers that Dr Elsie Inglis, who was born in 1864 and died in 1917, was a pioneering Scottish doctor and surgeon, who became the founder of women's medical practices and hospitals located within the city of Edinburgh; recognises her work and achievements during the First World War, including becoming a suffragist and founder of the Scottish Women's Hospitals for Foreign Service, sending qualified teams of female nurses to Belgium, France, Serbia and Russia; notes the fundraising campaign to honour her life and recognise her work in the city of Edinburgh by commemorating her with a statue, and commends everyone who is involved with the campaign and their fundraising efforts planned for March 2022, which include a Girlguiding sponsored "Sit Still" on the Meadows, and various afternoon teas being held at the City Chambers and the Royal College of Surgeons Edinburgh.

Supported by: Siobhian Brown*, Bill Kidd*, Martin Whitfield*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Annabelle Ewing*, Rona Mackay*, John Mason*, Colin Beattie*, Michelle Thomson*

S6M-03022 Fulton MacGregor: Phenylketonuria (PKU)—That the Parliament recognises that phenylketonuria (PKU) is a rare metabolic condition where the body cannot process phenylalanine, an amino acid found in protein foods; understands that prolonged exposure to protein in their diet can result in people with PKU experiencing significant health issues, including brain damage; further understands that, at present, children and adults with PKU must follow an extreme dietary regime by cutting out almost all protein, weighing food and taking supplements, leaving them unable to make any spontaneous food choices or enjoy the same food as other people; understands that the drug, sapropterin, can assist in giving eligible people with PKU, including those in the Coatbridge and Chryston constituency, and across Scotland, some normality in their diet, and that the manufacturer of Kuvan, BioMarin Pharmaceutical, previously had an application for the drug turned down by the Scottish Medicines Consortium on grounds of cost; further understands that generic versions of sapropterin are now available; notes the calls on BioMarin Pharmaceutical to submit a new application, and further notes the calls on the NHS to explore any and all options to procure generic versions of sapropterin for prescription to eligible patients across Scotland.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-03021 Jenni Minto: Port Ellen Playing Fields Motorhome Facilities—That the Parliament congratulates Argyll and Bute Council and South Islay Development on being awarded funding of £370,000 from the Rural Tourism Infrastructure Fund for the Port Ellen Playing Fields Motorhome Facilities project; notes that this will be phase one of the development of the Port Ellen playing fields site; understands that the project will increase motorhome electric hook-up site capacity from four to 12 spaces, to satisfy growing demand, and will entail an upgrade to the disposal site capability for chemical, black and grey waste; further understands that, in addition, a new shower, toilet and laundry facility will be provided, alongside much-needed recycling facilities; recognises what it sees as the hard work of all those involved in the project, and wishes them every success for the future.

S6M-03020 Michelle Thomson: Queen Aimee and Her Bo'ness Children's Fair Festival Retinue 2022—That the Parliament congratulates Queen elect, Aimee, who, it understands, has been voted as this year's Bo'ness Children's Fair Festival Queen by her peers in Bo'ness Public Primary School, and will be crowned at this year's Bo'ness Fair Day; hopes that this year will be the first year since 2019 that the celebration can take place in person; understands that it was held virtually in 2020 and 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic; congratulates all who have been selected as part of this year's retinue, including Ladies in Waiting, Fairies, Maids of Honour, Queen's Champion, Heralds, Sceptre Bearer, Sword Bearer, Yeoman of the Guard, Page Boys and Guards of Honour; understands that the Bo'ness Fair, in its current format, was first launched 120 years ago, in 1897, by the then Provost, George Cadell Stewart, and has been held every year since, with the exception of the years of the First and Second World Wars, and the industrial depressions of 1921 and 1926; further understands that the festival is believed to be one of the largest and most popular events of its type across the UK; notes what it sees as the importance of festivals, like the Bo'ness Fair, in encouraging community spirit and in celebrating the heritage of communities across Scotland; looks forward to this year's Bo'ness Fair, and wishes Queen elect Aimee, her retinue, and all Bo'nessians, the very best for this year's event and for the future.

S6M-03017 Ariane Burgess: Caithness Broch Project—That the Parliament recognises the Caithness Broch Project's plans to build the first broch in Scotland in 2,000 years; congratulates the organisation on its efforts to create a visitor attraction that, it believes, will bring people to Caithness from all over the country; understands that the structure will be built by only using methods available in the Iron Age, and will include a combination of features found in broch construction, and celebrates what it sees as the unprecedented nature of this project.

S6M-03014 Pam Gosal: Asda Stores Introducing a Permanent Quiet Hour Across its Stores—That the Parliament commends Asda stores for introducing a quiet hour to help customers with hidden disabilities; recognises that stores with loud noises, bright lights and a large volume of people can be stressful for some customers; understands that Asda stores across the West of Scotland region and the rest of the country will benefit from the hour on Monday to Thursday at 2.00 pm; further understands that there are an estimated 14.1 million disabled people living in the UK, and that 80% of disabilities are hidden, and believes that, by introducing quieter times for customers to shop, it will help to make the shopping experience more welcoming and inclusive for customers with additional needs.

S6M-03013 Pam Gosal: St Ninian's High School Pupils Achieve Silver Status Accreditation From UNICEF—That the Parliament congratulates pupils at St Ninian's High School in Kirkintilloch, on achieving Silver status accreditation from UNICEF; understands that the RSS Rights Respecting Schools group has worked hard to raise £607 for the UN Afghan Emergency Appeal Fund; further understands that the 15 Ambassadors have raised awareness for events and projects that aim to help pupils understand and empathise with those less fortunate; notes that the pupils ran a Rights Respecting Schools podcast, which is now available on Spotify, and gives interviews with staff, pupils and the wider community, helping to raise awareness of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), and applauds the podcast for working with the library, the Well-bean café and the Equalities group, and for raising the profile of events such as Active Girls Day, the school show and Anti-Bullying week.

S6M-03011 Sharon Dowey: National Independent Venue Week —That the Parliament notes that 31 January to 6 February 2022 is national Independent Venue Week; understands that IVW is a seven-day celebration of music venues around the country and the people who own, run and work in them; recognises what it sees as the valuable role that independent music venues play in developing the next generation of talent, providing many artists with their first experience of playing live in front of an audience; notes what it sees as the wider role that these venues play as community, cultural and creative hubs, and voices its support for the sector, which, it believes, has been hit hard during the COVID-19 pandemic.

S6M-03006 Clare Adamson: Friends of Hartwood Paupers Graveyard—The Parliament commends the residents of Hartwood who founded The Friends of Hartwood Paupers Cemetery, and the volunteers from across Wishaw and Motherwell and the wider Lanarkshire community, who dedicate their time to restoring the Old Lanarkshire Asylum Cemetery; notes that from 1895 to 1954 there were 1255 people interred in 634, mainly anonymous, graves, within the small area; understands that after extensive research, information boards are now installed on-site, naming all 1,255 people and reuniting living family members with long last relatives; commends BBC Scotland's programme, My Kind of Town, hosted by Ian Hamilton and his guide dog, Major, on highlighting the past, present and the future vision of the cemetery; acknowledges what it sees as the positive impact that this project has had on the wellbeing of all those involved and which, it considers, reflects the changing approach to mental health with an emphasis on a person-centred and empathetic perspective; thanks all involved for their efforts, and wishes them the best for the future.

Supported by: Rona Mackay*, Miles Briggs*, Evelyn Tweed*, Annabelle Ewing*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Jackie Dunbar*, Colin Beattie*, Kenneth Gibson*, Bill Kidd*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, David Torrance*, Siobhian Brown*, Ruth Maguire*, Donald Cameron*

S6M-03005 Rachael Hamilton: Borders' Hockey Coach Rewarded with the British Empire Medal—That the Parliament recognises the achievement of Borderer, Mary Weir, who has been awarded with the prestigious British Empire Medal for her decades of devotion to sport in the Borders; acknowledges her passion and commitment in coaching and managing sport clubs, in particular at Kelso High School, South Hockey and Kelso Hockey Club, where she is currently the Chairwoman; recognises what it sees as her integral part in the success of hockey in the Borders, with many of her players reaching district and even national level, and acknowledges the scale of this award and congratulates her on her success.

Supported by: Pam Gosal*, Miles Briggs*, Russell Findlay*, Tess White*, Douglas Ross*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alexander Stewart*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Craig Hoy*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Jamie Greene*, Annie Wells*, Finlay Carson*, Donald Cameron*

S6M-03000 Karen Adam: Opportunities for Women in Agriculture—That the Parliament applauds the work of Lantra Scotland for what it sees as the organisation's vital work in supporting the personal and professional development of women in agriculture, providing training to improve accessibility and improve skills, and helping to break down stereotypes of agriculture as an industry primarily for men; understands that, in partnership with the Scottish Government's Women in Agriculture Programme Practical Training Fund, Lantra Scotland has supported more than 400 women and girls to take courses to develop their skill sets or change careers, and help to ensure that the community workforce meets the needs of this fast-changing sector in Scotland, and urges women in the north east and across Scotland to consider a career in agriculture and apply for this funding opportunity.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
