S6M-03099 Katy Clark: Precarious Employment in Further and Higher Education—That the Parliament notes the strike action announced by University and College Union (UCU) members to be taken across Scottish universities in February 2022, including in the West Scotland region; understands that a key demand of the workers is a nationally-agreed framework to eliminate precarious employment; notes with concern data published by the Higher Education Statistics Agency, which reportedly showed that 32% of all UK University staff were on fixed-term contracts in 2020-21 and 33% of all Scotland-based University staff were on fixed-term contracts in 2019-20; further notes College Staffing Data, published by the Scottish Funding Council, which reportedly showed that 13% of all teaching staff at Scottish colleges were on temporary contracts in 2019-20; notes with concern the findings of the UCU report, Second Class Academic Citizens: The dehumanising effects of casualisation in higher education, published in 2020, which found that students on temporary or fixed-term contracts felt invisible, vulnerable, lacking in agency and unable to make long-term plans; further notes surveys carried out by the UCU in June 2019, which reportedly found that 93% of respondents on fixed-term contracts in further education roles and 97% of respondents on fixed-term contracts in higher education roles would rather be on permanent contracts; understands that employers have a statutory responsibility to ensure that workers must not be treated less favourably than comparable staff; notes the calls for academic institutions not to use employment agencies to recruit staff; further notes the calls for the Scottish Funding Council to set out guidance that temporary or fixed-term contracts should not be used; acknowledges the view that academic institutions should seek to negotiate with trade unions to transition staff in precarious employment to more secure contracts, and notes the calls for the Scottish Government to work with higher and further education institutions, local authorities and trade unions to put an end to what it considers the precarious employment in the academic sector.

S6M-03091 John Mason: Persecution of Christians—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as the persecution of Christians across the world; acknowledges the findings of the World Watch List 2022, compiled by Open Doors, which ranks the top 50 countries where, according to the list, Christians face the most extreme levels of persecution; understands that the top 10 on this year's watch list are, starting at number one, Afghanistan, North Korea, Somalia, Libya, Yemen, Eritrea, Nigeria, Pakistan, Iran, and India; further understands that analysis shows that, on average, every day, 13 Christians worldwide are killed because of their faith and 12 churches or Christian buildings are attacked; understands that 309 million Christians are living in places with very high or extreme levels of persecution, with, reportedly, one in eight Christians facing persecution worldwide, and one in six in Africa, and two in five in Asia, facing persecution; sympathises with all those who face persecution for practising their faith, and notes the calls reminding Christians across Scotland, including in the Glasgow Shettleston constituency, to keep those victimised in their prayers.

S6M-03086 Edward Mountain: Highland Pre-hospital Immediate Care and Trauma

Service—That the Parliament supports what it sees as the pioneering and life-saving work of the Highland Pre-hospital Immediate Care and Trauma (PICT) service; understands that Highland PICT is a dual clinician Medic/Advanced Practitioner rapid response team that is based at Raigmore Hospital, in Inverness, and provides enhanced frontline care to medical and traumatic emergencies across the Highlands; further understands that, since 2015, the team has successfully expanded its operations from a two-day service to a seven-day service, which has been in place since August 2020; considers that Highland PICT meets the ambitions of the Scottish Government's national trauma network programme and plays a key role in NHS Highland's major incident planning, collaborating with the Scottish Ambulance Service and other emergency services; notes, with deep concern, reports that NHS Highland's funding review for Highland PICT will result in a reduced service of four days per week, and further notes the calls encouraging the NHS board to reconsider its funding proposal for what it sees as a vital service.

Supported by: Tess White*, Alexander Stewart*, Maurice Golden*, Murdo Fraser*, Douglas Ross*, Jamie Halcro Johnston*, Jamie Greene*, Miles Briggs*, Jackie Baillie*, Rhoda Grant*, Pam Gosal*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Donald Cameron*, Craig Hoy*, Douglas Lumsden*, Sue Webber*, Finlay Carson*, Annie Wells*, Jeremy Balfour*, Brian Whittle*

S6M-03083 Alasdair Allan: Energy Bill Crisis for Island Communities—That the Parliament notes reports of growing concerns about what it sees as the energy bill crisis, including in Na h-Eileanan an Iar; understands that Ofgem's decision to raise the price cap will increase household energy bills by an average of 54%; considers that distribution levies unfairly penalise poorer people and those who live in rural areas; believes that the rise in energy costs from April will push many island households to breaking point; further believes that island residents are more vulnerable to what it sees as the current cost of living crisis due to existing higher living costs, including what it considers to be unfair energy levies, and to weather conditions, the lack of a mains gas option for most people, and low incomes in many areas; welcomes the Scottish Government's confirmation that it will use the £290 million from the UK Treasury to directly support those who will be most detrimentally impacted by the price cap increase; considers that the power to make critical energy legislation is reserved to the UK Parliament; condemns the UK Government for, it believes, failing to step in further to prevent fuel poverty resulting from this situation; notes the calls for anyone who is struggling with their bills to contact Advice Direct Scotland for free practical advice; considers that the current devolution settlement prevents the Scottish Parliament from legislating directly on this issue, and notes the calls on the UK Government to do more to tackle what it believes to be the current fuel price crisis.

S6M-03185 Christine Grahame: Kurt Zouma—That the Parliament condemns the actions of Kurt Zouma, the Premier League footballer at West Ham United who it considers callously and with premeditation tormented one of his cats by throwing and kicking it, in a way it believes replicated his actions with a football, and chasing what it considers must have been a terrified animal, as well as slapping it in the head for, it believes, his and others entertainment; understands that this was then posted on social media, which alerted the RSPCA and others to his actions; expresses relief that the RSPCA has now reportedly removed the two cats from his household for welfare reasons and to pursue its own investigation; considers that West Ham United, while aware of these actions, should not have permitted him to play, and that a fine of £250,000, representing what it sees as an eye-watering two weeks' pay, is insufficient; believes that his professed remorse is wholly insufficient, and hopes that he is either banned from owning any other animal, or undertakes never to own one again.

S6M-03126 Rachael Hamilton: Kelso in Top 10 Most Welcoming Towns in the UK —That the Parliament recognises that the town of Kelso has been listed in the top 10 Most Welcoming Towns in the UK; understands that the list was based on booking.com's user reviews of experiences with hospitality; further understands that the report was compiled by looking at reviews for more than 53,000 travel providers in the UK, and was based on the proportion of properties receiving one of its Traveller Review Awards in 2022, and commends Kelso, its local community groups, businesses and residents on achieving this award, and for making the town an attractive and welcoming tourist destination. R

S6M-03107 Paul O'Kane: David Hume Institute Report on the Diversity of the Leaders of the Top 300 Charities in Scotland— That the Parliament welcomes the David Hume Institute's latest research on the diversity of thought among Scotland's top charity leaders; recognises what it sees as the social and economic importance of embedding diversity and inclusion strategies and the work done to advance them in building a fair and prosperous Scotland; understands that the report considers the educational, gender, ethnic, age and professional diversity of the leaders of Scotland's top 300 charities by income from the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR); notes what it sees as the diversity of organisations within the charity sector and their significant influence and resources, with, it understands, a combined income of over £13 billion, and each organisation's legally binding commitment to public benefit; reluctantly welcomes the report's key findings that just 34% of top charity leaders are women and just 2% are from an ethnic minority background, which it considers shows that the charity sector has a long way to go to represent the communities that it serves; understands that an unintended consequence of the creation of the new charitable status of Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) has been less requirement for transparency about who runs the organisation, and that businesses are often subject to more requirement for transparency than charities; endorses the Institute's recommendation for OSCR's powers to be extended to create a publicly searchable register of charity trustees, which it considers would improve transparency to ensure public benefit, with exemptions for organisations with highly sensitive charitable purposes, and congratulates the Institute on launching the report at an online webinar on 9 February 2022 with experienced third sector CEOs and the trustees, Manish Joshi and Theresa Shearer.

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Proposals for Bills – Scottish Parliament | Scottish Parliament Website

New Draft Proposal

Christine Grahame MSP: Proposed Welfare of Dogs (Scotland) Bill— A proposal for a bill to improve the health and wellbeing of dogs throughout their lives, including by establishing a more responsible and informed approach to acquiring and owning a puppy or dog; and to regulate the selling or transferring of puppies from unlicensed litters, including by introducing a power for the Scottish Government to introduce regulations.

(lodged 10 February 2022)

A statement of reasons (as to why consultation is considered unnecessary), lodged with the proposal, may be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe) or on the website page referred to above.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
