Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- *...* around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

*S6M-03551 Sandesh Gulhane: World Kidney Day 10 March 2022—That the Parliament recognises that 10 March 2022 is World Kidney Day; understands that the day highlights the importance of kidney health, and draws attention to kidney disease and the associated mental health repercussions, as well as the physical impact; further understands that three million people in the United Kingdom have chronic kidney disease and that the average wait time for a kidney is three years, and acknowledges what it sees as the importance of living donation for people in need of a kidney transplant. R

again and will play a crucial role in UK-wide efforts to assist the Ukrainian people; applauds the teams at The Orcadian and McAdie & Reeve, and all those volunteering to help the appeal, for committing to what it sees as this heroic mission to personally deliver much-needed vital aid to the frontline of this conflict; pays tribute to the people of Orkney who, it believes, played a pivotal role in securing the ban on Russian vessels entering UK ports, and who, it understands, have united as a community to stand in solidarity with Ukraine, and encourages everyone in Orkney and across the country to support the appeal and fundraising campaign in whatever way they can.

Supported by: Kaukab Stewart*, Bill Kidd*, Miles Briggs*, Stuart McMillan*, Monica Lennon*, Michelle Thomson*, Alex Cole-Hamilton*, Douglas Ross*, Sandesh Gulhane*

*S6M-03468 Jackie Dunbar: Subsea Expo 2022—That the Parliament welcomes the return of Subsea Expo to Aberdeen, following its absence during the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that Subsea Expo is the world's largest subsea conference, with over 2,000 guests and 110 companies having attended the event from 22 to 24 February 2022; notes that Subsea Expo is organised by the Global Underwater Hub and that the event is in its 15th year; understands that the 2022 theme was Oceans of Opportunity and that it aimed to enable discussions around how the north east can be at the cutting edge of the underwater industry, which, it believes, is set to see significant growth in the future; further understands that a group of over 100 school pupils were invited to learn about career prospects within the subsea sector; understands that the winners of the Subsea UK Awards were announced in a ceremony on the second day of the event; believes that the event enables valuable networking opportunities and cross-sector cooperation within the industry, as well as with the defence industry, and welcomes the technological innovation and economic growth that the event stimulates.

Supported by: Annabelle Ewing*, Stuart McMillan*, Bill Kidd*, Audrey Nicoll*, Colin Beattie*, Kenneth Gibson*, Emma Harper*, Siobhian Brown*, Joe FitzPatrick*

*S6M-03467 Neil Bibby: Everyone Aboard—That the Parliament welcomes the Everyone Aboard campaign, led by the Poverty Alliance; understands that the campaign calls for the extension of concessionary travel to all bus passengers under the age of 25, and to passengers in receipt of low-income benefits; notes that the recent extension of concessionary travel does not include 22- to 24-year-olds; believes that average bus fares have increased by almost one fifth in the last five years; considers that affordable, reliable and accessible public transport can help ease financial pressures on the travelling public and open up opportunities for work, education, training and leisure, and therefore calls on the Scottish Government to extend concessionary travel further, to 22- to 24-year-olds, and to consider a further extension in concessionary travel to passengers in receipt of low-income benefits, as part of its Fair Fares Review.

Supported by: Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Sarah Boyack*, Foysol Choudhury*, Alex Rowley*, Monica Lennon*, Martin Whitfield*, Carol Mochan*

*S6M-03332 Rachael Hamilton: Congratulating Chris Laidlaw on Fundraising for Borders' Charities—That the Parliament recognises what it sees as that three worthy Borders' charities that have benefitted from the efforts of Chris Laidlaw, the former Jed-Forest, Boroughmuir and Scotland Club International stand-off, who ran 12 marathons in 12 months on their behalf; notes that Chris Laidlaw beat his original target of £12,000 and raised an impressive £26,000, more than double his goal; understands that Chris Laidlaw, son of former Scotland and Lions scrum-half, Roy Laidlaw, and cousin of recent Scotland captain, Greig Laidlaw, chose Alzheimer Scotland, Marie Curie, and the Murrayfield Injured Players Foundation as his chosen benefactors, and commends Chris Laidlaw on his tremendous fundraising efforts.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.

Following a reference under section 33 of the Scotland Act 1998 by the Attorney General and the Advocate General for Scotland, the Supreme Court has ruled that some provisions of the Bill are outwith the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament. The Bill cannot be submitted for Royal Assent in its unamended form.
