Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S6M-04821 Miles Briggs: Cancer Card—That the Parliament acknowledges what it sees as the tremendous work by Jen Hardy in establishing Cancer Card in Scotland, which is an initiative that provides people with access to vital cancer support services and information regarding their diagnosis in one place; understands that, after her own incurable breast cancer diagnosis in 2017, Jen was struck by the realisation that there was no single place for her to obtain useful information related to her illness, which motivated her to establish Cancer Card; further understands that this community can help people diagnosed with cancer, including people in the Lothian region, to find the support that they require, minimising stress during an already highly stressful time; recognises that Cancer Card attained charity status in 2021; considers that it can play an integral role in securing relief and comfort to cancer patients, and welcomes the appointment of Ian Pirrie as Cancer Card's first CEO.

S6M-04754 Katy Clark: Bus Services—That the Parliament believes that local bus services are a lifeline that enable communities to access essential services, but that they are currently in a state of crisis; understands that bus fares have risen by 58% in real terms since 1995; further understands that rail passenger journeys fell by 43% between 1986-97 and 2019-20; notes with concern the reported cancellation of dozens of bus journeys in Ayrshire by the operator, Stagecoach, due to “staff shortages”; further notes the reported comments by the Confederation of Passenger Transport UK – Scotland (CPT), which represents operators, indicating that vacancies have doubled since 2019 to an average of 12.5% across Scotland; notes the reported findings of a survey in November 2021 by Unite the Union of members in the sector across the UK, which found that 91% believed drivers were leaving the industry due to pay, 89% due to working conditions and 68% due to long hours; further notes the view that the Scottish Government should ensure that minimum fair work standards are in place for all bus operators in Scotland; understands with concern that only 38 people were supported to train as bus and coach drivers via the employability fund in 2019-20, and fewer than five were supported in 2020-21 and the first quarter of 2021-22; notes the view that the Scottish Government should provide investment so that more drivers are able to receive subsidised training, and to increase recruitment in the sector; considers that municipal bus ownership is an opportunity to reverse falling passenger numbers, cut fare costs and improve standards, and notes the calls on the Scottish Government to provide significant funding and resources so that local authorities are incentivised to develop these networks.

Supported by: Pauline McNeill*, Monica Lennon*, Carol Mochan*, Foyso Choudhury*, Paul Sweeney*

S6M-04693 Clare Adamson: Child Safety Week 2022—That the Parliament marks Child Safety Week, the flagship annual community awareness campaign run by the Child Accident Prevention Trust (CAPT); understands that Child Safety Week takes place between 6 and 12 June 2022 with the theme, Safety in Mind, encouraging parents and carers to think of safety, particularly when under pressure; considers that Child Safety Week acts as a catalyst for thousands of conversations and events across the UK with the aim of building awareness, knowledge and confidence around risks to children and helping to prevent accidents; acknowledges that accidents to children represent a serious public health issue, with safety organisations such as RoSPA outlining that child accidents are a major cause of preventable death, serious injury and long-term disability; understands that accidents disproportionately affect children from more deprived backgrounds, with falls accounting for the majority of non-fatal accidents, and threats to breathing such as suffocation, strangulation and choking causing the highest number of deaths; notes the research from CAPT that indicates that, although it is difficult to give a true cost of treating children's accidents as outpatients and inpatients, in the past, it has been estimated at more than £275 million a year and that it can cost as much as £250,000 to treat one severe bath water scald; understands that most home accidents are preventable through increased awareness, improvements in the home environment and greater product safety, which it considers makes awareness initiatives such as Child Safety Week vital endeavours; commends the efforts of all organisations that work together to increase the safety of children and young people, and wishes everyone involved with Child Safety Week every success.

S6M-04665 Katy Clark: First Aid Regulation—That the Parliament notes with concern the reported lack of regulation of private first aid companies; understands that private first aid companies are regularly employed to provide medical cover at events across Scotland, including sporting events, live music events and nightclubs; further understands that these companies can be accredited as providers by the Scottish Qualifications Authority but that there is no official body tasked with carrying out regular audits and inspections; believes that unlicensed first aiders providing controlled drugs or treatment to members of the public is dangerous, unacceptable and to the detriment of public health; understands that private medical and first aid companies are governed by the Care Quality Commission in England and Wales, which carries out regular inspections and requires companies to provide evidence of training, equipment, vehicles, processes and policies, and notes the view that the Scottish Government should seek to review existing structures with a view to developing equivalent processes that ensure there is sufficient oversight of all first aid providers in Scotland, including in the West Scotland region.

The Wood Foundation, YPI has engaged more than 230,000 young people who have taken responsibility for £5 million of charitable giving, and understands that the donation from Balfron High School's YPI will assist Start Up Stirling with their project, which is focused on relieving poverty, suffering and distress of people in crisis across the Stirling Council area, and which, it considers, is very important with rising costs putting increasing pressure on low income households across Stirling.

Supported by: Stephanie Callaghan*, Miles Briggs*, Murdo Fraser*, Colin Beattie*, David Torrance*, Emma Harper*, Audrey Nicoll*, Bill Kidd*, Annabelle Ewing*, Karen Adam*

*S6M-04726 Kenneth Gibson: Celebrating Arran's First Pride March—That the Parliament celebrates the first-ever Pride march on the Isle of Arran on 4 June 2022; understands that the event included a Grand Parade, a picnic in the park near Brodick Hall and a ceilidh; is aware that Arran Pride was an event for all the island to enjoy and also offered some much needed opportunities for local businesses and crafters, many of whom helped to make the village look bright and cheery by dressing their shop windows with bright rainbow colours, and hopes that everyone who attended Arran Pride had an enjoyable and unforgettable day.

*S6M-04724 Alexander Stewart: Alva Academy and Staff Shortlisted for Four Education Awards—That the Parliament welcomes the news that Alva Academy, including two members of staff, have been shortlisted for four awards at the 2022 Scottish Education Awards; understands that the school is in the running for the Making a Difference (Secondary) Award and the Curriculum Innovation Award, whilst modern languages teacher, Shiona Finn, who has been serving the school for 31 years, has been shortlisted for the Lifetime Achievement Award and music teacher, David Clifford, is shortlisted for Teacher of the Year; acknowledges that the Making a Difference award aims to recognise schools that transform the life chances of young people, and wishes all the nominees the very best of luck when the winners will be announced at the awards ceremony in Glasgow on 8 June 2022.

Supported by: Tess White*, Miles Briggs*, Colin Beattie*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Murdo Fraser*, Bill Kidd*, Martin Whitfield*, Craig Hoy*, Pam Gosal*, Karen Adam*

*S6M-04722 Elena Whitham: Glenapp Castle, Ayrshire—That the Parliament congratulates Glenapp Castle on its remarkable achievement being shortlisted for the Catey Awards 2022; understands that it has been shortlisted in the Hotel of the Year – Independent category; further understands that winning a Catey Award is so significant, as recipients are nominated, selected and rewarded by their peers, and wishes Glenapp Castle every success at the ceremony on 5 July 2022.

*S6M-04720 Sharon Dowey: Citadel Centre to be Saved—That the Parliament welcomes the reported decision of South Ayrshire Council to invest £10 million in Ayr's Citadel leisure facility; understands that the facility hosts one of four diving pools in Scotland, and is the only facility on the west coast with diving boards; further understands that the leisure centre is home to many of sport's leading figures and those training for the Olympic sport; acknowledges that there is a local diving club that uses the facilities for training regularly and that the next nearest centre is Edinburgh; believes that previous plans to relocate the centre were rejected by the general public, with a petition to save the facility reaching over 3,000 signatures; considers that the result of this decision, to save the much loved facility, is welcomed by all, and believes that saving the sports

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Proposals for Bills – Scottish Parliament | Scottish Parliament Website

Final Proposal for a Member's Bill

Douglas Ross: Proposed Right to Addiction Recovery (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to give those addicted to drugs and/or alcohol the right to access the necessary addiction treatment they require. (lodged 30 May 2022)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
