Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-05251 Kaukab Stewart: Celebrating 100 years of Women in Law—That the Parliament welcomes the ongoing Women in Law Project, spearheaded by academics from Glasgow and Glasgow Caledonian Universities, and designed to collect 100 voices to mark the 100 years since women were admitted to enter the legal profession in 1919; commends the digital exhibition on the University of Glasgow Law School website, which includes blogs, essays, podcasts and videos showcasing the women lawyers who have had a connection to the University of Glasgow School of Law over the last 100 years; celebrates the fact that the most recent Law Society of Scotland Diversity Data indicates that women make up 55% of the professional population and 66% of student intake; notes what it sees as the encouraging increase in the number of solicitors from a Black, Asian and Minority Ethnic (BAME) background (under the age of 30), and urges universities to continue to pursue increased diversity in their student populations.

S6M-05250 Alex Cole-Hamilton: Royal Zoological Society of Scotland Given People's Choice Award—That the Parliament congratulates the Royal Zoological Society of Scotland on winning the People's Choice award in the Scottish Council for Voluntary Organisations (SCVO) 2022 Scottish Charity Awards; understands that the People's Choice award is won by the Charity Awards finalist who receives the most votes from members of the public; further understands that more than 18,000 votes were cast online in this year's People's Choice category; recognises that the Royal Zoological Society of Scotland has worked to protect threatened species in Scotland and across the world for over 100 years; believes that the contribution by the Royal Zoological Society of Scotland has been invaluable to conservation efforts across the globe; welcomes the ongoing success of SCVO's annual Charity Awards, and notes what it sees as the important role that the event plays in highlighting the incredible efforts of organisations and individuals across Scotland's voluntary sector.

S6M-05248 Stuart McMillan: Greenock Weightlifters' Success at the Scottish Masters Open Weightlifting Competition—That the Parliament congratulates Greenock weightlifters David Owens and Denise Trayling on their success at the Scottish Masters Open; understands that David returned from injury and smashed nine Scottish records on his way to winning the 89 kilo title at the prestigious national competition, while Denise won the 95 kilo women's title at the Masters event, and wishes the pair all the best at future competitions as they continue to show the strength in depth of experienced local lifters.

S6M-05247 David Torrance: Kirkcaldy Company, PeachyKeen, Wins Third Place at Ljubljana Smart Pedal Pitch 2022—That the Parliament welcomes the news that a Kirkcaldy company, which designs and manufactures products that utilise human movement to generate electricity, PeachyKeen, has won third place at the Ljubljana Smart Pedal Pitch 2022 in Slovenia; congratulates PeachyKeen on coming in third place for the development and manufacturing of a LED pedal, using fully recyclable components; notes that PeachyKeen's pedals provide 360-degree visibility that can be seen at a distance of up to 1km, which is especially useful at traffic lights and intersections, as they can blink for up to 7 minutes when stopped; considers that PeachyKeen's LED pedal will increase cyclists' safety while riding in low-light environments, and commends the team at PeachyKeen for their dedication, ingenuity, and vision in highlighting road safety issues for all road users.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Karen Adam*, Audrey Nicoll*, Jeremy Balfour*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Jackie Dunbar*, Siobhian Brown*, Bill Kidd*, Colin Beattie*

S6M-05246 Annabelle Ewing: Kelty Primary School Fundraising Efforts—That the Parliament recognises the incredible efforts of pupils, parents, and teachers at Kelty Primary School for their incredible fundraising efforts for NHS Fife's Children's Ward; understands that they raised an outstanding £3,155 for the ward; notes that this was raised through their enterprise project and some sponsored runs; further understands that this money will be used to top up the ward's treasure boxes; acknowledges that the treasure box is where children are invited to take a toy when they visit the ward to make their stay a little less daunting; congratulates all those involved in the fundraising efforts, and thanks them for all that they do.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*

S6M-05245 Annabelle Ewing: Benarty Gala —That the Parliament notes the success of the 2022 Benarty Gala, which was held on 26 June 2022; acknowledges that this is the first gala since the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that this event has been sorely missed during the pandemic; further understands that the family day out had lots to see and do, with various stalls and performances; recognises the generosity of local businesses who helped sponsor the event; thanks all volunteers of the Benarty Events Group for the hard work and effort that has gone in to organising the gala over the year; believes that events like this would not be possible without volunteers, who are a credit to their community, and thanks them for this.

S6M-05244 Annabelle Ewing: Kelty Children's Gala —That the Parliament notes the success of the 2022 Kelty Children's Gala, which was held on 25 June 2022; acknowledges that this is the first gala since the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that this event has been sorely missed during the pandemic; further understands that the family day out had lots to see and do, with various stalls and performances; recognises the generosity of local businesses who helped sponsor the event; thanks all volunteers for the hard work and effort that has gone into organising the gala over the year; believes that events like this would not be possible without volunteers, who are a credit to their community, and thanks them for this.

S6M-05243 Annabelle Ewing: Benarty Pipe Band and Highland Dancing Competition —That the Parliament notes the success of the Benarty Pipe Band and Highland Dancing Competition, which was held on 18 June 2022, at Lochore Meadows Country Park; acknowledges that this was the first time the competition was held after a period of absence during the COVID-19 pandemic; understands that the event was sorely missed by the communities of Benarty; further understands that the competition attracts bands from all across the country to compete together; thanks the Chieftain, Michael Payne, and Master of Ceremonies, Michael O'Hare who ensured the smooth running of the competition; further thanks all volunteers who stepped up and helped the day to be a success; recognises the Benarty Events Group who plan and organise this event as part of their Gala Week, and wishes them all the very best for the future.

S6M-05242 Jackie Dunbar: P&J Live Named Venue of the Year—That the Parliament congratulates P&J Live, which has recently been crowned Venue of the Year at the prestigious Association of Event Organisers Excellence Awards; understands that the Aberdeen Donside based venue was awarded the prize based on factors such as market conditions, growth and communication; further understands that P&J Live won against fierce competition, beating the likes of Abu Dhabi National Exhibitions Centre, RAI Amsterdam, O2 Arena London and the Scottish Event Campus (SEC) Glasgow; believes that the Association of Event Organisers Awards represents the best the events industry has to offer and helps to showcase some of the finest achievements, recognising as well as celebrating the high standards of excellence from venues and the service quality by suppliers and contractors; notes that P&J Live became the largest venue in Scotland when it first opened its doors in August 2019 as a replacement for the Aberdeen Exhibition and Conference Centre, boasting world-class facilities as well as a 15,000 capacity arena; congratulates all staff involved in the day to day operations of P&J Live who help to ensure that every event is made a reality, and wishes them all the best for the future.

Supported by: Jeremy Balfour*, Douglas Lumsden*, Miles Briggs*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Bill Kidd*, Audrey Nicoll*, Kenneth Gibson*, Siobhian Brown*, Annabelle Ewing*, Karen Adam*, David Torrance*, Colin Beattie*

S6M-05241 Edward Mountain: Cairn Medical Practice Raises Money for Three Highland Charities—That the Parliament congratulates Cairn Medical Practice staff for raising money during a virtual cycle from Land's End to John o' Groats, which saw over 115 people taking part; notes that The Archie Foundation, Calums Cabin and Young Lives vs Cancer each received £8,758 from Cairn Medical practice, and commends all those that participated and donated to the Cairn Charity Challenge.

S6M-05239 Alexander Stewart: Lornshill Pupils Champion Home Start Clackmannanshire in YPI Initiative and Raise £3,000 for the Local Group—That the Parliament welcomes the news that pupils from Lornshill Academy in Alloa have championed Home Start Clackmannanshire via the Youth and Philanthropy Initiative (YPI), which, it believes, is a powerful active citizenship programme, empowering young people to make a difference in their communities while developing a range of skills and confidence that will prove helpful in later life; understands that YPI is the largest independent initiative being delivered in Scottish education, with each school responsible for directing a grant of £3,000 to a local charity championed by its students through a unique programme of teamwork, research, and competition; acknowledges that, for this, the pupils prepared and delivered a presentatio, which secured a grant of £3,000 to Home Start Clackmannanshire in order to further support their Home Start Family Support Groups; commends all the pupils involved for their fantastic work with this initiative, and congratulates Home Start Clackmannanshire on its continued endeavours for the benefit of Wee County communities.

June 2022; encourages any applicable organisation or community group to take a look at how the ABZ Propeller Fund could potentially benefit them for the next round of funding, and thanks all involved at Aberdeen International Airport for their continued commitment to communities across Aberdeen and Aberdeenshire.

S6M-05231 Ross Greer: Milngavie Pipe Band Success at European Championships—That the Parliament congratulates Milngavie Pipe Band on coming first place in Grade 3B at the 2022 European Pipe Band championships; notes that the competition was held on 25 June 2022 in Bught Park, Inverness; recognises that the band successfully competed against 10 others in the category; is grateful to band members and supporters for their hard work in achieving the result, and wishes the band the best of luck in future competitions.

S6M-05182 Kenneth Gibson: Russia Must Take Responsibility for MH17 Mass Murder—That the Parliament marks with sadness the eighth anniversary of the unprovoked shooting down of Malaysia Airlines flight MH17 by what it believes was a Russian army-owned Buk surface-to-air missile from a farm near Pervomaisk, an area in the Donbas region that was under control of pro-Russian forces, as it was travelling above Kursk from Amsterdam to Kuala Lumpur on 17 July 2014, resulting in 298 deaths, including 15 crew members and 80 children; acknowledges the ongoing criminal trial at the District Court of The Hague brought by the Dutch Public Prosecution Service against the four suspects, four Russian and one Ukrainian, which commenced on 7 June 2021, with proceedings scheduled to resume in the autumn and a judgement anticipated to be delivered before the end of 2022; recognises the ongoing case with the European Court of Human Rights of the inter-state application that the Netherlands submitted against the Russian Federation on 10 July 2020 for its role in the downing of flight MH17, now joined with a Ukrainian application; understands that, on 14 March 2022, the Netherlands and Australia initiated legal proceedings before the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) against the Russian Federation for its role in the downing of flight MH17; continues to support not only the Dutch victims and families but all 298 MH17 victims, of 17 different nationalities, and their loved ones; backs the Netherlands, Ukraine, Australia and other engaging parties in their continued pursuit of truth, justice and accountability; urges Vladimir Putin to cease what it considers a senseless ongoing campaign of bloodshed for the purpose of expansion of the Russian Federation into Ukraine, and to accept responsibility for what it considers a heinous act of terrorism and to help secure justice for the victims of MH17 and their families, and expresses Scotland's continuing sympathy to everyone whose lives have been impacted by this senseless act of mass murder.

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
