Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Members' Business motions that have achieved cross party support

S6M-05949 Mark Ruskell: Greyhound Racing in Scotland—That the Parliament notes the reported proposed closure of the last licensed greyhound racing track in Scotland, Shawfield Stadium, Rutherglen; further notes the Scottish Animal Welfare Commission's view that there should be an end to greyhound racing at unlicensed tracks, including, it understands, the last remaining track at Thornton in Fife; acknowledges reported animal welfare concerns linked with greyhound racing, including neglect, malnutrition, doping with Class A substances, lack of adequate healthcare provision, and severe and fatal injuries; highlights the latest reported data released by the Greyhound Board of Great Britain (GBGB) regarding Shawfield Stadium, reporting 197 injuries and 15 deaths between 2017 and 2020; understands that there is no similar data at unlicensed tracks where there is no official regulatory body present to ensure that animal welfare standards are met, and commends campaigners and rescue organisations for their ongoing rehoming and awareness-raising work, including the Scottish SPCA, One Kind, League Against Cruel Sports Scotland, Scotland Against Greyhound Exploitation, and others.

Supported by: Maggie Chapman*, Gillian Mackay*, Bill Kidd*, Ruth Maguire*, Rona Mackay*, Stuart McMillan*, Fulton MacGregor*, Ross Greer*, Christine Grahame*

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-05887 Stuart McMillan: Recovery Month 2022—That the Parliament commends the efforts of third and public sector organisations across Inverclyde during Recovery Month 2022; understands that to mark International Overdose Awareness Day on 31 August 2022, Moving On Inverclyde, the Salvation Army in Greenock, Inverclyde Recovery Hub, CVS Inverclyde and Jericho House took part in Inverclyde Council's alcohol and drugs team's Recovery Opens Doors initiative, where they were open to the public and other stakeholders, highlighting the work they do to help those living with addiction within the community; further understands that the organisations have come together to offer a range of events during September for Recovery Month, including a remembrance vigil to remember those who have been lost to alcohol and drug misuse, a recovery football tournament, involving teams from Jericho House, The Haven and Inverclyde Recovery Hub, a stigma and kindness workshop, and tea in the park, offering live music, face painting and food for free; believes that partnership working in Inverclyde is having a positive impact on efforts

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-05985 Pam Gosal: Garelochhead & Roseneath Peninsula First Responders Receive Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medal—That the Parliament congratulates John Webb, Hazel Wilkes, Sheena Edwards and Martin Cox of Garelochhead & Roseneath Peninsula on receiving the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medals for their selfless work as Community First Responders for the area, giving over five years of service; understands that the team administers immediate medical care in the local area until an ambulance arrives; notes that the medal, which is inscribed with the words "My Heart and My Devotion" that refers to The Queen's speech of 1957, is awarded to serving frontline members of the armed forces, police, fire and ambulance services for their public service, and thanks them for their immense contribution as frontline support volunteers.

Supported by: Jamie Greene*, Miles Briggs*, Alexander Stewart*, Brian Whittle*, Colin Beattie*, Fulton MacGregor*, Jeremy Balfour*

S6M-05984 Rona Mackay: Scottish Enterprise Specialist Spirits Retailer of the Year, Glasgow—That the Parliament congratulates Spirit of Alba for winning the accolade of Specialist Spirits Retailer of the Year in the Glasgow area; commends the entrepreneurship of Jim Hopkins and Craig Simpson, whose enthusiasm and specialist knowledge of the 600 whiskies and spirits stocked attracts increasing numbers of discerning clients to their welcoming store on Cowgate, Kirkintilloch; notes that the retail arm of the business was launched during the challenging market conditions of the COVID-19 pandemic; acknowledges the lengthy and intense planning that was required for the recent Spirit of Alba Festival 2022, where several dozen distillers of whisky, gin and rum exhibited to the public; applauds the company's strong message of responsible drinking, and wishes all at Spirit of Alba continued success in their business ventures online and in the constituency of Strathkelvin and Bearsden and beyond.

S6M-05980 Clare Adamson: Pretty Mudder Motherwell—That the Parliament applauds all the woman, men, children and four-legged friends who participated in the Motherwell Pretty Mudder within Strathclyde Park; understands that the course was over 5k with muddy obstacles, and made for all to have fun, where participants climbed, crawled and slipped their way to help tackle cancer; further understands that Race for Life is a series of events which encourage everyone, regardless of age, ability or background to take part, and has become one of the largest fundraising events in the UK, raising over £500 million to date, helping to fund cancer research in all 200 types of cancer; congratulates Cancer Research UK and all those who have helped and participated in the Race for Life since 1994, and thanks the charity, including its fantastic team in Scotland, for its continued work.

S6M-05978 Pam Gosal: Dalmuir Dancers Win 55 Trophies at United Dance Organisation

World Street Dance Championships in Blackpool—That the Parliament congratulates pupils at April's Street Feet Dance School on winning 55 Trophies at the United Dance Organisation (UDO) World Street Dance Championship in Blackpool; understands that the UDO event is the biggest in the street dance calendar, and led on from the group winning earlier stages at the beginning of the year and winning the Scottish Championships; applauds what it considers to be the hard work, dedication and commitment of the pupils and owner April Stuart-Macrae, as this type of event is a huge undertaking for all involved, with the children practicing five days a week throughout the summer holidays; understands that contestants from over 37 countries around the globe competed for trophies at the event, and wishes every success for the future to all those who took part

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Jeremy Balfour*, Alexander Stewart*, Annie Wells*, Fulton MacGregor*, Brian Whittle*, Edward Mountain*, Bill Kidd*, Jamie Greene*, Stuart McMillan*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Murdo Fraser*

S6M-05977 Pam Gosal: Milngavie Parents Triumph in Completing Triathlon with Disabled Son

—That the Parliament commends the efforts of Fiona and Gary Maurer for completing a triathlon challenge, which is part of the disability sports Superhero Series, with their 12-year-old son Ethan Maurer who has Pitt-Hopkins Syndrome; notes that the course entailed a 1km swim in Loch Morlich, then a 20km off-road path with Ethan's buggy, and then onto an 8km trail run; understands that Pitt-Hopkins is a severe neurological disability, which makes it difficult to walk unassisted or talk; supports what it sees as the positive attributes that sport plays in managing mental health, and considers that the triathlon is a great way to raise awareness of disabilities and promote inclusion in sport, and commends the Superhero Series, which is powered by Marvel, for offering a mass participation event for people with disabilities.

Supported by: Annie Wells*, Brian Whittle*, Edward Mountain*, Bill Kidd*, Stuart McMillan*, Miles Briggs*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Jeremy Balfour*, Jamie Greene*, Fulton MacGregor*

—That the Parliament commends Clyde Peatland on being named as a finalist for the Enhancing Our Environment through Land Management Award in the Scottish Land and Estates' Helping it Happen Awards 2022; understands that the Helping it Happen Awards showcase a range of work taking place across Scotland to support rural success; notes the view that large scale land management projects are considered to be most successful when local, regional, public and private entities collaborate to meet their goals; understands that Clyde Peatland is a Green Network Blueprint delivery project hosted by South Lanarkshire Council, with support and funding from NatureScot, through the Peatland ACTION Fund; further understands that Clyde Peatland works with public and private sector land owners and managers to undertake projects that have a wide range of ambitions, from promoting net-zero to reducing flooding, and much more; commends Scottish Land and Estates on their efforts to highlight the benefits of effective land management, including through their annual awards, and wishes Clyde Peatland every success in the future, including at the awards event on the 5 October 2022.

S6M-05975 Brian Whittle: Healthy Valleys Support for Communities in South Lanarkshire

—That the Parliament commends Healthy Valleys for its continued efforts in delivering projects which encourage local residents in rural South Lanarkshire to walk, cycle, wheel, scoot or use public transport for short, everyday journeys; highlights that the community-led initiative provides a loan scheme for a range of pedal bicycles and power-assisted e-bikes, and helps users to purchase their own e-bikes; further highlights that Healthy Valleys is expanding its efforts to offer eight-week programmes to help residents build confidence using e-bikes; understands that the initiative organises weekly health and buggy walks to help residents of all ages to stay physically active; considers that these projects help the local community maintain and improve their physical health, mental health and social wellbeing; further considers that the initiative also encourages residents to reconnect with their natural environment and better care for nature; notes that Healthy Valleys received support and funding from Scotland's walking charity, Paths for All, and wishes the initiative continued success in promoting active travel and the need to protect our natural heritage.

Supported by: Annie Wells*, Douglas Ross*, Alexander Stewart*, Miles Briggs*, Martin Whitfield*, Tess White*, Craig Hoy*, Stuart McMillan*, Karen Adam*, Pam Gosal*, Edward Mountain*, Murdo Fraser*, Jeremy Balfour*, Finlay Carson*, Bill Kidd*, Fulton MacGregor*, Jamie Greene*

S6M-05974 Alexander Stewart: University of Stirling Develops Dementia-friendly Guidance Tool—That the Parliament welcomes the news that experts from the University of Stirling have created a tool to help make homes, premises and public places more dementia friendly; understands that the Environments for Ageing and Dementia Design Assessment Tool (EADDAT) combines the latest research on designing for cognitive change with the expertise of leading architects based at the university's Dementia Services Development Centre (DSDC); believes that EADDAT is available to those seeking to make homes, restaurants, cafes and public buildings more accessible; considers that the tool could be useful for communities who have been placing an emphasis on dementia-friendly places, such as the development trusts at Dollar and Clackmannan; notes that according to Lesley Palmer, chief architect at Stirling University's DSDC, around two thirds of people with dementia in the UK live at home within their communities, and it is a requirement that supermarkets, pharmacies, and other public places make reasonable adjustments to enable everyone to use their facilities; understands that research demonstrates that dementia design can sustain independence and support quality of life for people with dementia, in addition to age-friendly environments which can help foster healthy and active ageing by building and maintaining cognitive capacities across the course of people's lives; considers that this is of increasing importance, given that the global population is ageing; acknowledges that this ground-breaking new tool is designed to be more accessible and covers an array of building types, and commends the work of Lesley and all her teams in the University of Stirling's Dementia Services Development Centre on their highly innovative work.

Supported by: Miles Briggs*, Edward Mountain*, Annie Wells*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Jeremy Balfour*, Brian Whittle*, Bill Kidd*, Fulton MacGregor*, Jamie Greene*, Stuart McMillan*, Sandesh Gulhane*, Jackie Dunbar*, Murdo Fraser*

S6M-05973 Karen Adam: Parliament Commends Zander Murray—That the Parliament commends Zander Murray of Gala Fairdean Rovers for coming out as the first openly gay football player in men's senior Scottish football; recognises what it sees as the courage Zander has displayed as a positive role model for the future of men's football in Scotland and globally, and applauds this as another step on the road to what it considers real equality, where all people who call Scotland home can openly love without prejudice, discrimination and fear.

Supported by: Liam McArthur*, Miles Briggs*, David Torrance*, Rona Mackay*, Stephanie Callaghan*, Bob Doris*, Annabelle Ewing*, Pam Duncan-Glancy*, Bill Kidd*, Colin Beattie*, Fulton MacGregor*

S6M-05972 Michelle Thomson: Father and Son Hit £40,000 Milestone in Fundraising for Strathcarron Hospice—That the Parliament congratulates father and son Kevin and Ryan Beattie, from Carron in Falkirk, on their fundraising efforts in aid of Strathcarron Hospice; understands that with the help of their family and friends, Kevin and Ryan have been fundraising for Strathcarron Hospice for the past four years and cumulatively have raised £40,000 to date; recognises what it sees as the incredible work that all those who work at Strathcarron Hospice do, not only supporting individuals but also their families with the lived realities of palliative care, while ensuring they live as fulfilled a life as possible with their remaining time and pass with dignity; notes that this collective fundraising effort was inspired by the loss of Kevin's mother, Jean, to cancer in 2018, and the amazing care both Jean and her family received from the dedicated staff at Strathcarron Hospice, which it believes is widely treasured throughout Falkirk's communities and beyond; appreciates the variety of challenges and events Kevin and Ryan have undertaken to raise what it sees as much needed funds for Strathcarron Hospice, including, it understands, half marathons, marathons, 10k runs, 1980s and 90s themed nights, an abseil down the Falkirk Wheel, and their current undertaking, a 10-day venture to scale Africa's Mount Kilimanjaro, and wishes them well for their climb up Mount Kilimanjaro and any future challenges.

Motions Glusadan

S6M-05971 Michelle Thomson: Kinneil Estate Celebrates Centenary of Public Heritage — That the Parliament recognises the centenary anniversary of the public heritage of Kinneil Estate, including the historic Kinneil House in Bo'ness, Falkirk; understands that in 1922, thousands of acres of land holdings across central Scotland belonging to the Hamilton family were put up for auction and sold for public ownership to Bo'ness Town Council, including Kinneil House and its surrounding estate, which hold historic links to the Antonine Wall and James Watt, who constructed his first engine there in 1700; recognises that 100 years on, locals maintain their vested interest in this crucial historical public heritage site by volunteering and participating with organisations such as Friends of Kinneil; understands that Friends of Kinneil is a volunteer-led charity dedicated to the development, promotion and educational values of the Kinneil Estate, for the benefit and enjoyment of those local to the community and beyond; notes that Friends of Kinneil facilitate and promote many events that forge community links with this site of significant public heritage, such as the family-friendly evening bat walk that took place in the estate in August to mark International Bat Night, or the Kinneil Hill Climb, organised by Bo'ness Sporting Automobile Club, which featured classic racing cars tackling Scotland's oldest permanent race track on 10 and 11 September 2022; recognises what it sees as the importance of the centenary anniversary milestone of Kinneil Estate and its significance in the history of not only the local community of Bo'ness but indeed also across Scotland; further congratulates the voluntary work of organisations such as Friends of Kinneil for their efforts to promote, develop and educate others of the importance of Kinneil Estate for generations to come, and wishes them well for all their future endeavours.

S6M-05970 Alexander Stewart: Alloa-based SG Pro Cleaning Hosts Scottish Autism Charity Golf Day for the 10th Year.—That the Parliament welcomes the news that an Alloa company has teamed up with a good cause in Clackmannanshire for a charity golf tournament, which entered a landmark year this September 2022; understands that SG Pro Cleaning has hosted a charity golf day for Scottish Autism for 10 years, and that the event returned on 2 September 2022, hosted at the Duke's Course at St Andrews; further understands that legendary Scottish rugby player Scott Hastings made a special guest appearance, taking part with the SG Pro Cleaning team, which won first place, as well as addressing the 22 teams who took part and conducting the charity auction on the day; believes that the event in 2022 beat previous records, with £13,875 going to the charity, bringing the total over the years to more than £70,000; understands that these funds raised will help provide a science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) room for pupils at New Struan School in Alloa, and commends SG Pro

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

Proposals for Bills – Scottish Parliament | Scottish Parliament Website

Final Proposal for Member's Bills

Liam McArthur: Proposed Assisted Dying for Terminally Ill Adults (Scotland) Bill—Proposal for a Bill to enable competent adults who are terminally ill to be provided as their request with assistance to end their life and to provide for the collection and reporting of relevant data. (lodged 8 September 2022)

The proposal was accompanied by a summary of consultation responses, which is accessible online via the website page referred to above. The summary, and individual responses, may also be viewed in the Scottish Parliament Information Centre (SPICe).

Progress of Legislation

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.

(G) = Government Bill; (M) = Member's Bill; (C) = Committee Bill; (P) = Private Bill; (H) = Hybrid Bill.
