Debate on the subject of—

S6M-06145 Graham Simpson: Free Rail Travel for Blind and Partially Sighted People and Companions—That the Parliament notes that there is no national entitlement to free rail travel for companions under the National (Scotland) Concessionary Travel for Blind Persons card; understands that this is in contrast to the provision afforded to bus travel; is concerned that cost was named by more disabled people than non-disabled people as a reason not to use the train in the 2021 Scottish Household Survey; believes that a national rail concession policy for companions would improve safety, access to employment and social connections for the estimated 180,000 people living with sight loss in Scotland, including in the Central Scotland region, and notes the calls on the Scottish Government to work with local authorities to establish a national policy.

Motions

Motions and amendments are usually printed the day after lodging. When an amendment is lodged, then the original motion will be republished alongside it.

Motions and amendments can be published with symbols:

- * before the number indicates publication for the first time
- ... around a section of text indicates changes to previously published material
- R indicates a member has declared a registered interest

The Parliamentary Bureau periodically deletes motions or amendments that are over six weeks old and not scheduled for debate.

Questions regarding this section should be directed to the Chamber Desk.

Motions for Debate

S6M-07210 Tom Arthur: Moveable Transactions (Scotland) Bill—That the Parliament agrees to the general principles of the Moveable Transactions (Scotland) Bill.

Supported by: John Swinney*, Richard Lochhead*, Ivan McKee*

Members' Business motions that have not achieved cross party support

S6M-07161 Paul McLennan: Heart Month, February 2023—That the Parliament recognises that February 2023 is heart month; understands that ischaemic heart disease is still the single biggest killer in Scotland and that British Heart Foundation Scotland estimates that 11,000 people in East Lothian and 700,000 people in Scotland are currently living with the effects of heart disease; further understands that British Heart Foundation currently funds £53.1 million in ongoing research in Scotland across 10 universities in Aberdeen, Dundee, Edinburgh, Glasgow, St Andrews and Stirling, which is 54% of publicly funded cardiovascular research, and notes that British Heart Foundation Scotland's priorities for heart disease services in East Lothian and across Scotland are to tackle heart disease risk factors, ensure timely and equitable care, and improve the collection and use of data.

Other new and altered motions and amendments

S6M-07203 Christine Grahame: Scottish Animal Welfare Commission's (SAWC) Report on Snaring—That the Parliament notes the Scottish Animal Welfare Commission's (SAWC) position paper on the trapping of terrestrial wild mammals using snares; highlights the paper's recommendation that the sale of snares and their use by both public and industry be banned in Scotland, on animal welfare grounds; notes that according to the SAWC position paper, wild mammals and birds are sentient beings and that snares cause significant welfare harms to members of both target and non-target species, and encourages the prompt implementation of this recommendation.

After section 8EA of the 2004 Act (inserted by section 6A) insert—

“8EB Notification by chief constable in connection with applications by certain offenders (Scotland)

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where the chief constable makes an application for a sexual harm prevention order or a sexual offences prevention order which, if made, would prevent a person from making an application for a gender recognition certificate.
- (2) The chief constable must notify the Registrar General for Scotland of—
 - (a) the making of the application for the order,
 - (b) the making of any interim order preventing the person from making an application for a gender recognition certificate,
 - (c) the outcome of the application for the order, when the application has been finally determined,
 - (d) where an order preventing the person from making an application for a gender recognition certificate is made—
 - (i) the terms of the order, and
 - (ii) any subsequent variation, renewal or discharge of the order.

- (3) An application for a gender recognition certificate made in breach of an order mentioned in subsection (2)(b) or (d) is of no effect (and, accordingly, is to be treated by the Registrar General as if it had never been made).
- (4) Subsections (5) and (6) apply where—
 - (a) the chief constable makes an application for a sexual harm prevention order or a sexual offences prevention order in relation to a person who has made an application for a gender recognition certificate (“the applicant”),
 - (b) the application for the certificate has not yet been determined by the Registrar General, and
 - (c) the order would, if made, require the applicant to withdraw that application.
- (5) The chief constable must notify the Registrar General of—
 - (a) the making of the application for the order,
 - (b) the outcome of that application, when the application has been finally determined.
- (6) Where the Registrar General receives notification under subsection (5)(a), the Registrar General must not take any further steps in relation to the application for the certificate unless the chief constable notifies the Registrar General under subsection (5)(b) that either—
 - (a) no order has been made, or
 - (b) an order has been made, but it does not require the applicant to withdraw the application for the certificate.
- (7) For the purposes of this section, an application for a sexual harm prevention order or a sexual offences prevention order is finally determined when—
 - (a) any appeal in respect of the application is finally determined or withdrawn, or
 - (b) the period for making such an appeal expires with no appeal having been made.
- (8) In this section—

“application for a gender recognition certificate” means an application under section 8A(1), 8F(1), 8J(1) or 8K(1) for a gender recognition certificate or under section 8O(1) for a confirmatory gender recognition certificate,

“chief constable” means the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland,

“sexual harm prevention order” and “interim sexual harm prevention order” have the meanings given by section 25(1) of the Abusive Behaviour and Sexual Harm (Scotland) Act 2016,

Members' Bills Proposals

Proposals for Members' Bills

A member seeking to introduce a Member's Bill must first lodge a draft proposal, together with a consultation document (or a statement of reasons why consultation is not considered necessary). Subsequently, the member may lodge a final proposal, in broadly similar terms to the draft, accompanied by a summary of consultation responses (or the statement of reasons). The member secures the right to introduce a Bill to give effect to the proposal if the final proposal secures, within one month, the support of at least 18 other members from at least half the political parties or groups represented in the Parliamentary Bureau, and provided no statement is made that the Scottish Government is planning equivalent legislation.

All current proposals (together with associated documents) are available on the Scottish Parliament website at Proposals for Members' Bills/Session 6 Proposals:

A list of all Bills in progress can be accessed via the Scottish Parliament website at:

<https://www.parliament.scot/bills-and-laws/bills>

For each Bill, the date of the next (or most recent) event in the Bill's passage is given. Other relevant information, e.g. about lodging amendments, is given in italics.

As soon as a Public Bill (i.e. a Government, Committee or Member's Bill) has completed Stage 1, amendments for consideration at Stage 2 may be lodged; and as soon as Stage 2 is completed, amendments for Stage 3 consideration may be lodged. The last lodging day for amendments at Stage 2 is four sitting days before the meeting at which those amendments will be considered (e.g. Wednesday for a meeting on Tuesday); at Stage 3 it is five days before. Amendments may be lodged until 4.30 pm on any sitting day, except on the last lodging day for each Stage, when the deadline is 12 noon.

A Hybrid Bill is subject to the same rules except in the case of Stage 2 where amendments for consideration may be lodged no earlier than the completion of any consideration of evidence at Stage 2.

Amendments to Private Bills are subject to different deadlines. These are set out in Rule 9A.12 of Standing Orders.

Members are advised to lodge amendments in good time before the beginning of a Stage and as early as possible during the day.
